SC PUTS OFF SCIENTIFIC SURVEY TO DETERMINE GYANVAPI 'SHIVLING' AGE

The Supreme Court on Friday said implications of the Allahabad High Court order for carbon dating of the Shivling-like structure merit closer scrutiny

CENTRE, U.P. GOVT AGREE TO ADJOURN STUDY

A bench comprising Chief Justice D Y Chandrachud and judges P S Narasimha and K V Vishwanathan, issued notices to the Centre, the Uttar Pradesh government and the Hindu petitioners on the plea of the Anjuman Islamia Masjid committee against the HC order for scientific survey. Both the Centre and the UP govt agreed to the plea for adjourning the proposed survey for now

CALL FOR ALTERNATIVE TO CARBON DATING

- Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, appearing for UP govt, expressed concerns regarding damage to the structure during the process. He said the govt will examine in consultation with the Archaeological Survey of India if there is an alternative method to ascertain the age of the 'Shivling'
- The high court order had said the structure should be unharmed

NOTES TO CONTINUE TO MAINTAIN LEGAL STATUS

All banks shall discontinue issue of ₹2,000 denomination banknotes with immediate effect. ATMs may also be reconfigured accordingly. However, these notes will continue to be legal tender and can be used for transaction, payments etc even after September 30. Banks will also continue to accept ₹2,000 notes in deposit after September 30

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

In order to avoid the kind of chaos witnessed after the 2016 demonetisation, RBI has instructed banks to make arrangements to reduce inconvenience to the senior citizens, persons with disabilities etc, seeking exchange or deposit of ₹2,000 banknotes

WILL RBI EXTEND THE SEPT 30 DEADLINE?

Experts believe RBI is now trying to put pressure on the public to expend the high-value banknotes; it is likely to extend the date

SACHIN KUMAR @ Mumbai

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on Friday announced the withdrawal of ₹2,000 denomination banknotes from circulation. However, the central bank clarified that the high-value notes will continue to be a legal tender. In other words, the public can continue to use these notes for transactions.

The surprise announcement came as a shocker to many, reviving memories of the hardships the public had to face when the Centre announced demonetisation in November 2016 and decided to scrap ₹500 and ₹1,000 currency notes overnight.

This time, however, the authorities are confident there won't be any chaos as the ₹2,000 banknote will continue to remain in use.

The central bank has asked people to exchange the high-value notes into other denominations or deposit them with banks until September 30 at any bank branch. Banks will start exchanging these notes from May 23.

"Members of the public can continue to use ₹2,000 banknotes for their transactions and also receive them in payment. However, they are encouraged to deposit and/or exchange these banknotes on or before 30 September 2023," RBI said in a note.

RBI started printing ₹2,000 notes in November 2016 after the ₹1,000 and ₹500 notes were scrapped overnight.

Explaining the rationale behind the decision, the central bank said the objective of introducing ₹2,000 banknotes was met once banknotes in other denominations became available in adequate quantities. Therefore, printing of ₹2,000 banknotes was stopped in 2018-19. It has also been observed that this denomination is not commonly used for transactions.

"About 89% of the ₹2,000 denomination notes were issued prior to March 2017 and are at the end of their estimated lifespan of 4-5 years," said RBI. "Total value of these banknotes in circulation has declined from ₹6.73 lakh crore at its peak as on March 31, 2018 (37.3% of notes in circulation) to ₹3.62 lakh crore constituting only 10.8% of notes in circulation on March 31, 2023," it added.

People can deposit ₹2,000 banknotes into their bank accounts or exchange them for banknotes of other denominations at any bank branch. In order to ensure smooth operations and to avoid disruption of regular activities of bank branches, exchange of ₹2,000 banknotes into banknotes of other denominations can be made up to a limit of ₹20,000.

A person can approach any bank branch to exchange notes irrespective of the fact whether he or she has an account in that bank or not and can exchange ₹2,000 notes up to a limit of ₹20,000 at a time.

SC panel gives clean chit to Adani

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

THE six-member expert panel set up by the Supreme Court has given a clean chit to the Adani group saying based on the information Sebi has provided, it has found no evidence of stock price manipulation. The panel's report, released on Friday, has also ruled out any regulatory failure by Sebi.

The report says the stock-markets regulator has not found any evidence of artificiality in the stock price rise or any material to attribute the rally in stock prices to any single entity. According to the report, the contribution of 'suspected' foreign portfolio investors, 13 in total, referred to in the Hindenburg Research report is minuscule in the rise of the stock prices of six listed Adani group companies.

The findings of the panel come as a big relief for embattled billionaire Gautam Adani, whose group companies have lost about $120 billion in market capitalisation and are under heavy scrutiny after US-based short seller Hindenburg Research accused the port-to-power conglomerate of pulling the "largest con in corporate history" by engaging in "brazen stock manipulation and accounting fraud".

The Adanis have always denied the allegations and any wrongdoings.

However, the SC-appointed panel's report notes there was evidence of a build-up in short positions on Adani group stocks ahead of the Hindenburg report, published on January 24. The report claims profits were earned from squaring off positions after prices crashed post-publication of the damning allegations.

The panel, however, also drew some red flags. It said that while Sebi suspected 13 overseas entities of having alleged links with the promoters of Adani group, it could not gather any concrete evidence from regulators in other jurisdictions. Most of the FPIs, who invested heavily in Adani, are registered in offshore tax havens such as Cayman Islands, Malta, British Virgin Islands, Bermuda, etc.

DOESN'T FIND REGULATORY FAILURE

On the functioning of Sebi, the panel said based on the explanations provided by the watchdog, supported by empirical data, it does not see any regulatory failure around the allegation of price manipulation

28 MLAs to take oath as mins along with Siddu & DKS today

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI & PREETHA NAIR @ Bengaluru / New Delhi

CHIEF Minister-designate and Congress Legislature Party (CLP) leader Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister-designate and KPCC president DK Shivakumar will be sworn in along with 28 ministers at Sri Kanteerava Stadium in Bengaluru at 12.30 pm on Saturday.

After days of hectic parleys with Congress high command in New Delhi over deciding on who between Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar would be the new CM and reaching a decision on Thursday morning, Friday saw the two leaders back in the national capital to work out cabinet formation modalities.

Siddaramaiah — who has presented 13 budgets — is likely to keep the Finance and Personnel & Administrative Reforms portfolios, while Shivakumar vying for Home along with State Intelligence portfolios may settle for Water Resources and Energy, according to sources privy to the meetings.

It is learnt that the two leaders started shortlisting the names of probable ministers as soon as their flight took off from Bengaluru for New Delhi on Friday afternoon. The lists prepared by them were later presented to AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge at a closed door meeting, also attended by AICC general secretary (in-charge of Karnataka) Randeep Singh Surjewala and AICC general secretary (Organisation) KC Venugopal.

Former ministers KJ George, Ramalinga Reddy and Krishna Byregowda from Bengaluru urban district are confirmed to get cabinet berths. Differences arose over inclusion of NA Harris and Zameer Ahmed Khan till late night when this paper went to press.

Former chief minister Jagadish Shettar, who switched from BJP to Congress ahead of polls in which he lost from Hubballi-Dharwad Central constituency, is also said to be considered, while another BJP turncoat Laxman Savadi, too, is likely to make the cut. Savadi won on Congress ticket from Athani.

Former ministers MB Patil, Dr G Parameshwara, Priyank Kharge, Eshwar Khandre, UT Khader, Satish Jarkiholi, among others, are likely to be sworn in. Former Union minister KH Muniyappa or his daughter Roopakala Shashidhar may also be included in the cabinet. MORE ON: P2, P4

ALL EYES ON FIRST CABINET MEETING

Bengaluru: With senior Congress leaders Siddaramaiah and DK Shivakumar all set to take oath as CM and Deputy CM, respectively, on Saturday, all eyes are on the first cabinet meeting to be held soon after the swearing-in ceremony. The new government is expected to announce the implementation of Congress party's five guarantees. Deputy CM-designate Shivakumar on Friday said the guarantees promised by the Congress party will be implemented. P4

Swearing-in ceremony casts shadow on KCET

DONNA EVA @ Bengaluru

IN view of the swearing-in ceremony of the newly elected chief minister and deputy CM in the city on Saturday, measures have been taken to ensure that students appearing for the Karnataka Common Entrance Test (KCET) are not affected.

KCET will be held on Saturday and Sunday in two sessions -- from 10.30 am to 11.50 am and from 2.30 pm to 3.50 pm. It will take place in 592 centres across the state, with 121 in Bengaluru. Of the 121 centres, 11 are in the vicinity of Sri Kanteerava Stadium where the ceremony will be held at 12.30 pm.

Several measures have been taken by Bengaluru City Police, Bengaluru Traffic Police and Karnataka Examination Authority (KEA) to ensure that students appearing for KCET are not affected.

KEA has advised students to reach the centres near the stadium around 8.30 am to ensure that they are not stuck in traffic.

"The authority has taken appropriate measures to ensure students reach the centres without any delay owing to the oath-taking ceremony on Saturday. Students should be present at their respective centres by 8.30 am. This applies to students who appear for the Mathematics paper also," said Ramya S, KEA Executive Director.

Ramya said students may take police assistance to reach their centres by showing their admission cards.

Meanwhile, students appearing for KCET at St Joseph's Indian PU College, Vittal Mallya Road, which is near the stadium, will be served breakfast and lunch at the centre. As a precautionary measure, Bengaluru Traffic Police have advised students who write the test in the afternoon to use Vittal Mallya Road and St Marks Road and enter the college premises through the UB City entrance.

A similar situation prevailed during the conduct of NEET on May 7. Students had complained of NEET clashing with Prime Minister Modi's rally on the same day. Several measures were taken to ensure that the students were not affected by the rally. P2

Wankhede reveals SRK's messages

SUDHIR SURAYWANSHI @ Mumbai

FORMER Narcotics Control Bureau zonal officer Sameer Wankhede, who is under a cloud for his alleged attempt to extort ₹25 crore from Shah Rukh Khan in exchange for the release of his son Aryan in a drugs case, on Friday shared his WhatsApp chat messages with the Bollywood star in 2021 to try and clear his name.

Purported transcripts of their conversation were part of the affidavit he filed in the Bombay High Court. The petition claims SRK's text messages "clearly portrayed that he has no grievances against the petitioner and has only requested to be kind to his son (Aryan) Khan."

After Aryan's arrest, SRK had messaged Wankhede saying, "You are a good man. Please be kind to my son. My son will break as a human being. I can only plead and beg you as a father. Please. You promised you will reform my child. I would never stand in front of what you are doing. I have just believe in your goodness." Excerpts from the texts:

SRK: Sameer sahib may I speak with you for a minute please. Regards shah rukh khan. I know this is officially inappropriate and maybe outright wrong but once as a father if I can speak with you. please.

Sameer: Pl call.

SRK: Can't thank you enough for all the thoughts and personal insights you gave to me about my own. I will make sure that he turns out to be someone that you and I are both proud of. This incident will prove to be a turning point in his life I promise, in a good way. This country needs honest and hardworking young people to take it forward. You and I have done our PARTS THE NEXT GENERATION HAS TO FOLLOW...

SRK: Thank you. You are a good man. Please be kind to him today I request.

Sameer: Of course don't worry

SRK: God bless you. I have to come personally whenever you say and give a hug... I have always had the highest regard for your uprightness and now it has increased manifolds...

Prohibitory orders under Section 144 imposed around test centres today and tomorrow

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

CITY Police Commissioner CH Pratap Reddy has imposed prohibitory orders under Section 144 of CrPC in a radius of 200 metres from all KCET centres in the city on Saturday and Sunday. The prohibitory orders will be in force from 9 am to 3.50 pm on both days.

All photocopying centres in the vicinity of examination centres should remain closed on both days.

Meanwhile, the Police Department has made arrangements to help students appearing for KCET at St Joseph's Indian PU College, Mallya Hospital Road, as this centre is opposite Sri Kanteerava Stadium where the swearing-in ceremony of the new chief minister and deputy chief minister and other ministers will be held on Saturday.

The department has asked students to reach all KCET centres near the stadium before 8.30 am. Students appearing for KCET at St Joseph's Indian PU College, Mallya Hospital Road, may contact the ACP (Traffic Planning) on Ph: 9480801809 for assistance to reach the centre if they face any problem. They may also contact the traffic policemen deployed in and around the stadium.

The Karnataka Examination Authority and the authorities of St Joseph's PU College have also made arrangements to help students reach the centre without any hitch on Saturday. Students appearing for the KCET afternoon paper may take St Marks Road and Vittal Mallya Road to reach St Joseph's PU College in front of UB City.

KCET won't be deferred: KEA director

DONNA EVA @Bengaluru

KARNATAKA Examinations Authority (KEA) executive director Ramya S said the Karnataka Common Entrance Test (KCET) will not be postponed on Sunday, despite a clash with the Common University Entrance Test (CUET).

She said several factors had affected this decision, including the KCET timetable being published three to four months ago as opposed to the CUET timetable which was published only a month ago. "The timetable had been published prior to the CUET timetable, so the authority will not be postponing the examinations. The overlap between students writing the CUET and KCET exams on the same day is also very small to warrant postponement, and the issue could have been resolved if candidates had approached us earlier. However, with only one day left, it is impossible to postpone the test," she said.

Students had stated that many had been contacting the helpline to report the issue with no help and that the helpline number provided did not work. However, the KEA executive director rubbished the claims that the helpline wasn't working. "Initially, we would receive around 20,000 calls a day regarding issues with the admission process and hall tickets. We have attended every call and as issues have been resolved, the amount of calls received have reduced also. Currently, we receive around a hundred calls a day and we attend all of them. The helpline has not been down throughout this period," she told TNIE.

Santhosh takes dig at event on KCET day

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BJP national general secretary BL Santhosh took a dig at the swearing-in ceremony of the CM-elect and deputy CM-elect , which is planned at Sree Kanteerava Stadium on Saturday, expressing concern that the event may put students appearing for the KCET-2023 exam to inconvenience.

Around one lakh people are expected to take part in the swearing-in ceremony at 12.30 pm. As there are some examination centres around the stadium, Santhosh referred to a May 6 tweet of CM-designate Siddaramaiah, where the Congress leader had taken a jibe at Prime Minister Narendra Modi holding a roadshow in Bengaluru on May 7, the day when the NEET exam was scheduled.

"Not many days has passed after our designate CM tweeted this. Tomorrow (Saturday) is KCET exams across state and Bengaluru. What would have happened if your oath taking was deferred by a day or two so that students will not be troubled," Santhosh asked.

Meanwhile, Shivakumar appealed to students and parents to start early and try to reach the exam centres around the venue at least one hour before the scheduled time.

"The swearing-in ceremony starts at 12.30 pm and there should be no traffic problems in the morning. But I request students and parents of centres close to the stadium to start early," he said.

AFTER REVALUATION, BALLARI LAD NOW TOPPER IN II PU EXAM

DONNA EVA @Bengaluru

A REVALUATION process has switched the top two ranks in the Arts stream of II PU examinations. Second-ranked Kushunaik GL from Ballari, son of sugarcane harvesters, has now outranked Tabassum Shaik, who was the topper.

Tabassum from NMKRV PU College for Women in Bengaluru was initially the topper with a score of 593/ 600. Kushunaik from Indu Innovative PU College, Ballari, was ranked second with 592 marks, just one mark behind Tabassum. But following revaluation, he gained two more marks in Optional Kannada paper, surpassing Tabassum by one mark, with a total of 594 marks.

Kushunaik, however, said he felt unsatisfied with the results even after revaluation as he was sure he had scored more than what he was awarded. "Even now, I am confident of getting more marks. My parents have been sugarcane harvesters for over 20 years. They have worked very hard throughout their lives to ensure that my siblings and I get a good education. And, I wanted to ensure that I scored high for them. They have been supportive throughout my life and I want to be able to repay them," he said.

He had felt disappointed when the results were announced as he was sure he had scored full marks in all subjects. "Even now, there is not much joy as it feels like I lost marks unnecessarily. But my parents are very proud of me and it makes me happy. I want to ensure that they live a good life in the future and hope to pursue a career as an Indian Administrative Service (IAS) officer," he said.

However, he hopes to take up the Bachelor of Laws (LLB) course at Karnataka State Law University (KSLU) in Hubballi because of his family's poor financial background.

"I am hoping to pursue the LLB course. But I have not been able to apply to the university as we are very uncertain about money. Due to the nature of my parents' work, they will be unable to support me through the course and scholarships only cover a fraction of the course fees."

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

20TH May : Saturday is a day for making lists, planning ahead and getting some clarity into our dreams. If you want to sit down with business partners and family members to sort out the next six months, then now is a fine time to do so. And, if you don't, no problem. Saturday will be here again next week. As astrologers are fond of saying, 'what goes around comes around'.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
A twelve-month cycle of celestial self-indulgence is coming to a critical point but, before it does so, your stars are having one last fling. Will you match their capacity for enjoyment by doing exactly what you want? And, more to the point, can you fulfil your responsibilities at the same time?

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
The pursuit of pleasure is quite compatible with the general tone of the times. Given that you're approaching a powerful planetary picture, this is no time for complacency. On the other hand, you can allow yourself a few treats today. You deserve it!

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
The pace of events at home is due to become much faster, largely as a result of a recent lunar alignment. One way or another, family members demand your full attention. Artistic types should put much more energy into accomplishing their personal goals.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Mars is now rushing through your chart, stirring up all those deep, long-buried feelings. Please remember that quickness to anger also requires a readiness to forgive and that, having said your piece, you should allow the past to recede - and eventually fade away.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
It's a fine day for a spot of shopping. For those of you chasing property deals, the auspices are favourable though, in general, today's stars talk about casual spending as a path to temporary happiness. But, as you know, long-term solutions require deeper answers.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You specialise in sweeping things under the carpet. However, little events that happen today are a harbinger of what is to come - namely an increasing talent for exposing skeletons in cupboards! Tomorrow represents a symbolic fresh start - and so does the day after!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Although you have a reputation for generosity, the overwhelming trend of your chart is now towards putting yourself first. In many ways I feel that this is a necessary preparation for the next three-month cycle. First, you need to own up to a mistake, and work out how not to repeat it!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You may give even more attention to new associates and old friends. Your lunar pattern works a double game, probably bringing new people into your life, but urging you to get in touch with those ancient acquaintances who are a bit like part of the furniture!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The astrological universe sets certain tests and tasks. Everything that is done is done for a purpose, and if you are challenged or criticised, you are being done a very good turn. If you must blame something, blame the stars! Mind you, that still won't let you off the hook.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Perhaps an adventure you've been dreaming of for years is now on the cards. It might be that your fantasies are emotional as much as anything else. It could be a vision of the perfect home and family. Whatever it is, you can bring it a little closer today. Hopefully other people will play ball!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You have waited too long for your just rewards to give up now. But, merely because one association is fading from the scene, that doesn't mean that you'll be left high and dry. What you're going to discover from now on is that you will attract the right people at the right time.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
If by any slim or remote chance you're forming new friendships today, congratulations for being so in tune with your stars. In fact, you may find you can put new partnerships on a more permanent foundation! It's all about maintaining a positive perspective.

ED seizes over Rs 8 cr from Pigeon Edutech

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Directorate of Enforcement has seized Rs 8.26 crore in the case of Pigeon Education Technology India Pvt Ltd under Section 37A of FEMA, the Central agency stated in a release on Friday. The company is providing online education in the name of Odaclass.

Earlier, the ED had conducted search and seizure action against the company and found that the company is 100 percent owned by Chinese nationals.

"During the investigation, it was ascertained that the company has siphoned off Rs 82.72 crore to China and Hong Kong in the name of advertisement and marketing expenses on the instructions of Chinese director Liu Can. The company could not produce any proof of receipt of service on its part and proof of any advertisement published against the said expenses," charged the ED. "The director and accounts manager of the company has admitted that the payments were made only on Kan's instructions. The company's Indian director, Vedanta Hamirwasia, said that the Chinese director told them that the said adverts were published through Google and Facebook, however, no confirmation or invoice has been submitted."

FEAR OF LAYOFFS

No good nights: Staff feel lethargic at work, say doctors

'Post-Covid, focus on work-life balance'

NAMRATA SINDWANI
@ Bengaluru

With rise in fear of layoffs, employees have been dedicating more hours, over their daily targets, either to meet deadlines or to earn good certificate from their bosses. The overwork and exertion has sapped their sleep making them lethargic at work, said doctors.

They further stressed the importance of quality sleep and its impact on overall health.

Dr Sachin Baliga, psychiatry consultant, Fortis Hospital said, "I see around 6 patients weekly complaining about a disruptive sleep cycle. They tend to attend meetings till late in the night and work on extremely short deadlines, causing too much pressure. Spending time on social media or OTT platforms to unwind also hinders the mind from falling asleep easily."

Employees working on shift duties in Bengaluru complained that constant transition takes a toll on their sleep cycles. Another person said that 'mindless scrolling' after work hours also adds to sleep deprivation.

"I come across 20-30 patients weekly, most of whom complain about their inability to sleep", said Dr Sumana Y, wellness department consultant, BGS Gleneagles Hospital.

Lack of sleep discipline affects peoples' productivity and she suggested to seek help if the issue continued for long.

There is a need to maintain work-life balance, especially in the post-covid era when many are suffering from anxiety and stress beyond work, informed doctors.

Dr Girishachandra, senior psychiatry consultant, Aster CMI hospital recommended a minimum of 7-8 hours of sleep, avoiding gadgets 30 minutes before going to bed, sleeping in a ventilated room and regular physical exercise to maintain sleep hygiene.

OTT platforms glamourising tobacco usage, say experts

ENS @ Bengaluru

CHILDREN and young adults are most vulnerable to tobacco addiction because of its unregulated glamourisation on OTT platforms without any health warnings, said experts.

Dr Shalini Thakur, surgical oncologist, HCG Hospital, said the burden from tobacco-related health issues are rising exponentially, which if not controlled will lead to a situation where one in every three persons in the country will suffer from non-communicable diseases, like cancer, cardiovascular disease, respiratory disease and stroke.

In a panel discussion on the role of media in protecting children and youth from tobacco, drugs and other addictions, organised by the Karnataka NO for Tobacco union on Friday, doctors highlighted that the mortality burden due to tobacco usage stands at 13 lakh annually in India. A panellist highlighted that the government needs to introduce measures to regulate OTT platforms. Additionally, places like hookah bars are largely trending among youth, where they are exposed to smoking and other tobacco products without realising its adverse effect on health.

The experts demanded strengthening of Cigarette and Other Tobacco Products Act, increase in GST on tobacco products, ban on hookah bars, and regulating OTT platforms to prevent consumption and promote awareness.

33-yr-old mechanic stabbed to death

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A two-wheeler mechanic was stabbed to death at his house in Mahadevapura Zone between 8pm and 10pm on Thursday. His wife, along with her two children, had gone to her parents' house in Kammanahalli as one of their sons had chicken pox. The police suspect that a man in the locality, who was allegedly close to the victim's wife, might have killed Uday Kumar (33), a resident of Udaynagar.

The victim's wife called her husband and as she did not get any response, she contacted the house owner and her brother-in-law. That was when she found out about the murder. The Mahadevapura police were immediately informed.

"The victim was said to be an alcoholic and allegedly used to beat his wife. She must have discussed it with the suspect. We are checking if the woman had any role in the murder," said an officer.

Woman arrested for killing husband

Bengaluru: A woman, who had allegedly killed her husband with the help of her lover and made it look like a suicide, was arrested by the Kadugodi police. The man's body was found with his wrist slit. Postmortem revealed he had died of asphyxiation and sleeping pill overdose, which was laced in his food by his wife, Anitha, who tried to dump the body on tracks.

KAVERI 2.0 TO MAKE PROPERTY REGISTRATION 10-MIN AFFAIR

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

A whopping 59,898 documents have been registered using the new fraud-proof software for property registrations, Kaveri 2.0, which came into effect from April 1, 2023. This was possible as 59% of sub-registrar offices have adopted the software. BR Mamatha, Inspector General of Registration and Commissioner of Stamps, said, "Its implementation has been completed in 21 districts, while the entire Kalaburagi Division has adopted it. We will launch it in Bengaluru and Mysuru shortly."

Kaveri-2 is developed jointly with the Centre for Smart Governance. "It prevents crowding at sub-registrar offices, with only a 10-minute job to be done by the property owner in person," she said.

Users need to key in the data for registration and send it online for verification by the Stamps and Registration Department. The verified document will be mailed to make the payment online. "Individuals can schedule the date and time for the registration process. They need to visit the office only to capture the photo and thumb impression before handing over documents. When registration is complete, the digitally signed document will be sent to one's Digilocker account. Updated details would be sent directly to respective departments for updation of khata."

The registration department has come up with a blueprint to make the registration process a smooth affair, she said. "Waiting area, restroom, feeding area, ramp and lift are being planned. The sub-registrar offices at Sankeswara, Belgaum South and Byatarayanapura have already modernised their offices."

ADVERTISEMENT OF NOTICE OF THE MEETING OF THE EQUITY SHAREHOLDERS AND THE UNSECURED CREDITORS OF KOVILPATTI LAKSHMI ROLLER FLOUR MILLS LIMITED

Notice is hereby given that by an Order dated 10th May 2023, the Chennai Bench of the National Company Law Tribunal ("Tribunal") has directed separate meeting(s) to be held of the equity shareholders and the unsecured creditors of Kovilpatti Lakshmi Roller Flour Mills Limited ("the Company") for the purpose of considering, and if thought fit, approving with or without modification(s), the Scheme of Amalgamation of Raya Foods Private Limited (Transferor Company) with Kovilpatti Lakshmi Roller Flour Mills Limited (Transferee Company).

In pursuance of the said Order and as directed therein, further notice is hereby given that separate meeting(s) of the equity shareholders and the unsecured creditors of the Company will be held through Video Conferencing ("VC")/ Other Audio-Visual Means ("OAVM") on Thursday, 22nd June 2023 at 12.00 0' clock in the noon (IST) and 2.00 PM (IST) respectively at which time the said equity shareholders and the unsecured creditors are requested to attend their respective meetings.

Copies of the said Scheme of Amalgamation and of the statement under Sections 230 & 232 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") are posted on the website of the Company at www.klrf.in, website of Link Intime India Private Limited (LIIPL), Registrar & Share Transfer Agents (RTA)/ e-voting agency at instavote.linkintime.co.in and on the website of BSE Limited at www.bseindia.com and can also be obtained free of charge at the registered office of the company at 75/8, Benaras Cape Road, Gangaikondan, Tirunelveli – 627352, Tamil Nadu, India or at the office of its counsel M/s. G. Sivashankaran & S. Sathyaganesh, Advocates, 9/2 First Cross Street, Seethammal Colony, Alwarpet, Chennai – 600018.

The Company has engaged Link Intime India Private Limited as the agency to provide e-voting and other facilities for the meeting. Since the meetings are being held through VC/OAVM pursuant to directions of the Hon'ble Tribunal in accordance with the framework prescribed under the MCA Circulars and SEBI Circulars, physical attendance of members / unsecured creditors in their respective meetings has been dispensed with. Accordingly, the facility for appointment of proxies will not be available for their respective meetings and hence the Proxy Form was not annexed to the individual notice sent to the equity shareholders/ unsecured creditors.

The Tribunal has appointed Mr. V. Nallasenapathy, Advocate as the Chairperson (Chairman) of the said meetings. The above-mentioned Scheme of Amalgamation, if approved by the equity shareholders / unsecured creditors in their respective meeting(s), will be subject to the subsequent approval of the Hon'ble Tribunal.

The Company has completed the dispatch of Notice of the meetings along with the explanatory statement and annexures thereto on Friday, 19th May 2023 to those members holding shares of the Company as on Friday, 12th May 2023 and to all the unsecured creditors to whom balance is due as on Monday, 16th January 2023 through email / registered post in accordance with the directions of the Hon'ble Tribunal.

In compliance with Section 108 of the Act read with Rule 20 of the Companies (Management and Administration) Rules, 2014 as amended from time to time and Regulation 44 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, the members / unsecured creditors are provided with the facility to cast their votes on the resolution as set forth in the Notice using remote electronic voting system (remote e-voting) provided by LIIPL. Additionally, the Company is also providing the facility of voting through e-voting system during the meeting ("e-voting"). Detailed procedure for remote e-voting/ e-voting is provided in the individual notice sent to the equity shareholders/ unsecured creditors.

The Hon'ble Tribunal has appointed Ms. Deepa Mariappan, Advocate as Scrutinizer to scrutinize the voting process in a fair and transparent manner. The cut-off date for e-voting and time period for the remote e-voting of the aforesaid meetings are as under:

Siddu hits out at Centre over ₹2,000 note withdrawal

CM-designate Siddaramaiah termed RBI's decision to withdraw Rs 2,000 notes from circulation as "BJP's desperate attempt to divert attention from its failures." "Another note ban by PM Narendra Modi. Sad that the BJP government does not have clarity about its own policies. Why did they introduce Rs 2,000 notes in 2016 if they had plans to ban it?" Siddaramaiah tweeted. Siddaramaiah accused the PM of misusing demonetization, meant to be a weapon to fight black money, for political gains

REINS IN NEW HANDS...

It was a thriller finish to decide on the next chief minister and deputy chief minister. For over four days, tense deliberations in New Delhi finally gave way to a solution. The Congress high command chose CLP leader Siddaramaiah and KPCC president DK Shivakumar for the top jobs. They will be sworn in with other cabinet colleagues at Sree Kanteerava Stadium on Saturday, where preparations are on in full swing (in pics). Congress leaders Sonia Gandhi, Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra will attend the event. Tamil Nadu CM MK Stalin and his Bihar counterpart Nitish Kumar are likely to be present at the ceremony which is set to become a show of opposition unity.

FIRST CABINET MEET TODAY: GUARANTEES TO GET NOD?

BJP, JDS keeping an eye on how Cong will implement their 5 pre-poll promises with huge financial implications

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

WITH senior Congress leaders Siddaramaiah and DK Shivakumar all set to take oath as Chief Minister and Deputy CM, respectively, on Saturday, all eyes are on the first cabinet meeting to be held soon after the swearing-in ceremony.

The new government is expected to announce the implementation of Congress party's five guarantees – free power upto 200 units, Rs 3,000 for unemployed youth, Rs 2,000 for homemakers, free travel for women in government-run buses and 10 kg rice – at the first cabinet meeting.

Deputy chief minister-designate Shivakumar on Friday said the guarantees promised by the Congress party will be implemented.

Meanwhile, BJP and JDS leaders are eagerly looking forward as to how the Congress party will implement the five guarantees which will have huge financial implications. Shivakumar told reporters that the guarantees will be implemented on priority. "We will announce this in our first cabinet meeting," he said.

Asked if there would be any terms and conditions while implementing the guarantees, he said, "These are not just Siddaramaiah's or Shivakumar's guarantees, but of the Congress party, which have been announced by Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi."

Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar will take oath at Sri Kanteerava Stadium at 12.30 pm along with some MLAs. Earlier in the day, Shivakumar inspected preparations being made at the stadium along with Chief Secretary Vanditha Sharma and other officers. Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar had visited New Delhi to invite Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi to the swearing-in ceremony.

Shivakumar said, "We will also invite BJP leaders to the ceremony. You (BJP) MLAs are elected representatives and are part of the government. We invite you to attend the event.

"Hundreds of Congress workers and followers are expected to attend the ceremony. Tamil Nadu CM MK Stalin, Bihar CM Nitish Kumar, Jharkhand CM Hemant Soren, Bihar Deputy CM Tejaswi Yadav, and former CMs of Maharashtra Sharad Pawar and Uddhav Thackeray are among the VIPs expected to participate in the ceremony.

Traffic restrictions imposed in parts of the city for the ceremony are expected to affect hundreds of students appearing for CET at various centers. Bangalore Traffic Police have appealed to the students appearing for CET to reach the centres early.

'CONGRESS STARTED EARLY, BUT WE DIDN'T'

After the shocking defeat of BJP, former chief minister Basavaraj Bommai was in an introspective mood as he spoke to Bansy Kalappa of The New Indian Express. Excerpts.

WHAT went against your party?
First, freebies offered by Congress caught the attention of the people. Second, Congress started early and the campaign was managed well. Third, BJP suffered anti-incumbency. Fourth, we could have conveyed our programmes more effectively to the people. Fifth, Congress played casteism and caste card. Last, a chunk of around 5-6 per cent of JDS votes went to Congress.

Are you going to be the opposition leader?
It is left to the party, which will decide shortly.

Former minister V Somanna said some people within the party did not support him. He has also blamed some party leaders...
He had the courage to contest in two constituencies – in Chamarajanagar, against Puttaranga Shetty and in Varuna, against important Congress leader Siddaramaiah. He put in his best efforts and raised the level of the contest. He is disappointed. I will talk to him.

Parliamentary polls are just 11 months away...
We will work for a repeat of the 2019 parliamentary polls where we won 25+1 seats. We need to start putting in efforts early. After this debacle, we will put all our efforts into it. During the Assembly polls, it was exactly the opposite of what happens normally. BJP starts early, gives out tickets early and so on. But this time, Congress did that. They started early and gave tickets early. We delayed releasing the tickets and the manifesto. We could have done it earlier.

RSS-BJP leaders are already strategising on highlighting the differences between the two Congress leaders, Siddaramaiah and DK Shivakumar, considering Congress took five days to resolve the leadership issue. Your leaders are also thinking of highlighting future "corruption".
Congress is trying to cover up disunity among its leaders. The unity between Siddaramaiah and DK Shivakumar is a farce and it will take its toll. Congress is known for corruption. People will watch carefully to see what deceit they will indulge in. People will rise against it.

Your future plans?
Politics is not like cricket, it is more like football. In cricket, if one player performs it is sufficient, but in football all the players need to contribute. We need to take up issues and remain with people. It is important to play and not to remain mere spectators.

If you had more time in the government, could you have done more? Any regrets?
Yes, we could have done more as far as education, health, regional imbalance, uplifting the poor and other critical issues. These issues take a long time and require tremendous efforts.

The STs voted against BJP. Out of 15 seats, 14 went to Congress and one to JDS...
The ST leadership failed to communicate to the people what BJP had done for them. Some religious leaders in the community worked against us.

Was the experiment to bring in 75 new faces ill-conceived?
As an experiment to bring in fresh blood it is welcome. But time was too short to get a grip of the scenario.

Did Lingayats go against BJP?
Lingayats as a majority supported us. But certain sections went against us. Seeds of confusion worked for Congress.

Was it lonely at the top as chief minister?
Not lonely. Yes, there is tremendous responsibility and great efforts are needed to manage it. It was something extraordinary.

Many leaders say you never let arrogance and pride affect you. You remained a gentleman-CM.
Is it wrong to be a gentleman in politics? Being in power and being a gentleman is rare. I have seen power for a long time. I have worked closely with five chief ministers very closely and seen power at the highest level.

Supporters rough up staffer at KPCC office

BANSY KALAPPA @Bengaluru

A Karnataka Pradesh Congress Party office staffer, Narayana Swamy (60), who was managing the section giving passes for the swearing-in ceremony at Kanteerava Stadium in Bengaluru on Saturday, was abused and manhandled by angry Congress supporters on Friday evening, demanding more passes. Swamy's shirt was also torn in the melee.

His driver told TNIE, "We rushed him to Vikram Hospital for first-aid. He has swelling in his hand. He had it earlier, but it got worse due to pulling and pushing."

Angry workers also thumped tables and broke at least three of them. Massive crowds of supporters started gathering near the Congress office from early Friday morning and staffers had a tough time managing them.

A sitting Congress MLC said that more than half of party supporters had to stay outside the office as the space inside is limited. A Congress party source said, "Passes are given to certain categories, like KPCC and AICC office bearers and MLAs, MLCs, MPs, ex-MPs, former ministers and former CMs. The problem is that every MLA comes with 50 supporters and demands passes for all. Some leaders came with over a thousand supporters. It is not easy to manage."

Meanwhile, some MLAs came to Room No. 311 in Vidhana Soudha where passes were being distributed and collected more passes than officially mandated.

Cong top post solution irks Dalits

K SHIVA KUMAR @Mysuru

THE Congress high command has successfully resolved the impasse over chief minister and deputy chief minister posts, but the decision has dealt a severe blow to the political aspirations of Dalits, who have been elected to the Assembly from 21 seats, including six from the SC (left) community.

The hectic parleys in Delhi concluded with CLP leader Siddaramaiah as the next CM and KPCC president DK Shivakumar as his deputy.

This overwhelming mandate from Dalits was an indication that they wanted the chief minister from their community if the two big leaders failed to reach an understanding. If not the top job, the community hoped for at least the the deputy CM post. However, Shivakumar will be the lone deputy, crushing the hopes of former deputy CM G Parameshwara and veteran leader KH Muniyappa.

Dalits, who were deprived of many social programmes including student scholarships, came out in large numbers to support Congress helmed by senior Dalit leader Mallikarjun Kharge, which was another factor that helped consolidate the community votes.

The minorities, incensed by the hijab controversy and scrapping of 4 per cent reservation, rallied behind Congress, which had promised to restore the quota if they came to power. The Grand Old Party has also steered clear of giving the two top posts to the Lingayats.

The decision will leave both Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar in a precarious position as they will find it difficult to explain to Dalit leaders as to why they were not considered for the deputy CM post.

A veteran Congress leader said that when nine MLAs from minority communities are demanding a deputy CM post, Congress should also have considered Dalits who have been denied the top posts over the last seven years, despite having seasoned and respected politicians.

Deputy CM-designate DK Shivakumar reviews preparations at Sree Kanteerava Stadium in Bengaluru on Friday

Shivakumar reviews preparations

Bengaluru: Deputy CM-designate DK Shivakumar on Saturday reviewed the arrangements for the swearing-in ceremony at Sree Kanteerava Stadium, where over one lakh people are expected to attend, including VVIPs like chief ministers of some states and Congress leaders Sonia Gandhi, Rahul Gandhi, and Priyanka Gandhi Vadhra. Chief Secretary Vandita Sharma is supervising the preparations. Police have made elaborate security arrangements in and around the venue as national leaders are likely to be in attendance. Meanwhile, Shivakumar also shared a video on his social media accounts asking party workers come in large numbers.

Make Muniyappa DCM, demand SC (Left) leaders

V VELAYUDHAM @Kolar

EVEN as the Congress high command has made it clear that there will be only one deputy chief minister in the Siddaramaiah cabinet, member of the Scheduled Caste (Left) community have appealed to AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge, former AICC presidents Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi to make veteran Congress leader KH Muniyappa deputy CM. The party has already announced KPCC chief DK Shivakumar for that post.

Former chairman of Karnataka SC/ST Commission A Muniyappa told TNIE Muniyappa is the senior-most leader of the community which consists of 76 lakh people. In the interest of the people, the Congress high command must make him Siddaramaiah's deputy.

"A group of leaders have already reached New Delhi to submit a memorandum to the party high command. They will also highlight that six MLAs from SC left community have been elected to the Assembly on Congress tickets," he said.

Meanwhile, Muniyappa's supporters in Kolar district and his constituency Devanahalli are confident that the senior leader will be accommodated suitably. A source said the ex-Union minister was in New Delhi for the last four days and returned to Bengaluru to attend the CLP meeting.

Cong used Lingayats for power, says Vijayendra

Bengaluru: Slamming the Congress for refusing to give the post of deputy chief minister to a Lingayat, BJP MLA and son of Lingayat strongman BS Yediyurappa, BY Vijayendra, said in a series of tweets, "After using Lingayats as a pedestal for its greed for power, stalwarts of Congress have suddenly gone silent when it comes to offering CM or even DCM posts. Ironically, even after winning a maximum of 39 MLAs from Congress, Lingayats find themselves without any strong voice to demand rightful positions." CLP leader Siddaramaiah and KPCC president DK Shivakumar will be sworn-in as CM and DCM respectively at a ceremony in Sree Kanteerava Stadium on Saturday. Vijayendra said Congress has shown its real face. "Congress which has always mistreated Lingayats can never do justice to the community. It's BJP which truly represents the teachings of Basavanna by providing justice. Hope the people of Karnataka realise soon that they have fallen for the lies spread by Congress," he said.

Room for all? Race begins for prized offices, quarters, LH accommodation

BANSY KALAPPA @Bengaluru

NOW that the new government is just hours away, the race is on to grab the best rooms at Vidhana Soudha, Vikasa Soudha, Legislators Home and also best ministers' quarters.

Sections facing the High Court, which is towards north, and Raj Bhavan, towards east, are the most in demand. Supporters of MLAs have been doing a recce of Legislator Home rooms for the past few days to grab the best ones. The Legislators' Home has around 300 rooms for 224 MLAs and 75 MLCs.

A source, who works at Vidhana Soudha, said, "As the complete handover by the old government will happen on Saturday, most of the offices at Vidhana Soudha and Vikasa Soudha, rooms at LH and ministerial quarters are vacant. Some will be handed over on Saturday."

Since May 13, when the election results were announced, all the name boards have been removed and keys handed over to the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms (DPAR) and secretariat officials concerned.

Another source said, "Officials have checked the inventory at all these spaces and the rooms will be handed over to new occupants after a fresh coat of paint."

Most of the MLAs from the three parties who have retained their Assembly seats have kept their previous rooms at LH.

Sources said the first session of the new Assembly could be called on May 23 or 24 and the allotment of spaces would be completed before that.

Officials have checked the inventory at all these spaces and the rooms will be handed over to new occupants after a fresh coat of paint – Source

The annual brahmotsavams of Sri Govindaraja Swamy temple will be held between May 26 and June 3 with Ankurarpanam on May 25 in Tirupati. The important days include Dhwajarohanam on May 26, Garuda Vahanam on May 30, Rathotsavam on June 2 and Chakra Snanam on June 3

NAVEEN TO SKIP SIDDU SWEARING-IN TODAY

Odisha CM steers clear of anti-BJP front ahead of 2024 Lok Sabha elections; not to send any representative too

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bhubaneswar

EVEN as attempts to form an anti-BJP front received a boost with the massive victory of Congress in Karnataka Assembly elections, Odisha CM and BJD supremo Naveen Patnaik has once again clarified his intentions of not aligning with any such faction by deciding to skip the swearing-in ceremony of CM-elect Siddaramaiah and DyCM DK Shivakumar in Bengaluru on Saturday.

Sources said that Patnaik is unlikely to attend the swearing-in ceremony. He is also not going to send any minister from Odisha to attend the function as his representative. Naveen was invited to the swearing-in ceremony in Bengaluru along with CMs of 11 other non-BJP ruled states. The swearing-in ceremony is being seen as a show of strength by the Congress as several non-BJP CMs and leaders have either already reached Bengaluru or have given their consent to attend the function.

Though the anti-BJP camp has kept engaging with Naveen before every General Elections, the BJD supremo has so far rejected all such overtures citing the equidistance policy followed by his party. The CM had made it clear he has no plans to join any anti-BJP front ahead of the next elections after meeting Prime Minister Narendra Modi at New Delhi on May 11.

However, his speech at the inaugural ceremony of Puri-Howrah Vande Bharat Express on Thursday where he heaped praise on Modi has further strengthened speculations on BJD's course of action.

Meanwhile, the Congress slammed the BJD for taking a pro-BJP stance whenever necessary. Targeting Patnaik over his meeting with the PM two days after meeting Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar here, OPCC president Sarat Pattanayak said Naveen's statement at the inauguration ceremony of Puri-Howrah Vande Bharat Express has raised many eyebrows.

He alleged there is an understanding between BJD and BJP. "Both the parties are like brothers. However, they are pretending to be opposed to each other to mislead people," he added.

Kondapur was part of the 'Assaka Mahajanapada' (Manjeera Valley)

Kondapur excavation to shed new light on Satavahana era

VIVEK BHOOMI @Hyderabad

Dr G Maheswari, the regional director of the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI), who led the archaeologists carrying out excavations at Kondapur village near Sangareddy town between 2009 and 2011, is set to release two eagerly awaited volumes documenting the groundbreaking findings of religious practices during the Satavahana era.

These discoveries, which challenge previous assumptions, are expected to significantly contribute to the existing literature on the subject.

Traditionally, Satavahana sites were associated with Buddhism, but Dr Maheswari's research has uncovered compelling evidence of a distinct cult that thrived during the reign of the Satavahanas from the 4th century BC to the 1st century AD.

Kondapur, which was part of the 'Assaka Mahajanapada' (Manjeera Valley), one of the 16 Mahajanapadas (a geopolitical area before kingdoms were formed), serves as the focal point of her investigations. Dr Maheswari uncovered copious amounts of animal bones, including those of buffaloes, sheep, and other creatures, within the temples at the site. These findings strongly suggest the prevalence of animal sacrifices.

To support her assertions, Dr Maheswari cites an inscription found in Nagpur, which chronicles an animal sacrifice conducted by a Satavahana ruler to ensure progeny. However, she cautions that this particular sacrifice may not have occurred at Kondapur itself.

Dr Maheswari is striving to establish a connection between the Shaivism cult and the worship of Goddess Durga during the Satavahana era. Notably, Dr Maheswari unearthed a figurine in one of the temples at Kondapur depicting a mother holding a parrot, which serves as the vehicle of Goddess Kali.

She contends that, much like today, multiple faiths coexisted during the early historic period, with certain cults flourishing alongside Buddhism in Kondapur.

While delays have hampered the completion of the final excavation report, interim reports were submitted to the ASI headquarters in Delhi during the research process.

Bitter news for honey lovers, colonies diminish

PURAN CHOUDHARY @Bengaluru

HERE is some not so sweet news. Dwindling number of honey colonies in Karnataka has worried experts as it affects the process of pollination and production of fruits and vegetables.

World Bee Day is celebrated on May 20 each year.

According to Dr Mohan Naik, Professor & University Head, University of Agricultural Sciences, heavy use of pesticides by farmers is a big hindrance in survival of honey bees and creation of natural nectar. He also added that an increase in temperature and changes in climatic conditions are making it difficult to rear bees.

At present, 12,699 beekeepers and 19.34 lakh of honey bee colonies are registered with the National Bee Board in India producing 1,33,200 tonnes of honey annually. In Karnataka, approximately 26,500 beekeepers are producing 1,250 tonnes of honey each year.

To create awareness on honey bee rearing, pollination, the ill-effects of using pesticides and understanding the importance of bee colonies, the University of Agricultural Sciences will organse a programme for farmers and students on May 20. Close to 100 farmers from different districts of Karnataka will be explained the hazardous impact of pesticides and chemical fertilizers on bees and students will learn how bees are reared. 'Madhumela' has also been organised at Gandhi Krishi Vigyana Kendra (GKVK) in Bengaluru from 10am to 12pm.

Additionally, the university has tied up with Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) on a project titled 'All India Coordinated Project on Honeybee Research & Training' to understand the potential role of bees as pollinators.

Kerala boy, who died in mishap, scores A+

ENS @T'Puram

SARANG BR, a Class X student of Boys HSS, Attingal, was among the nearly 45,000 students who secured A+ in all subjects in the SSLC exam. But when the results were announced on Friday, the 16-year-old was no more. The boy, who met with an accident on May 13, breathed his last on Wednesday but his organs had given a lease of life to six people.

A teary-eyed General Education Minister V Sivankutty announced Sarang's results separately at the press conference in which the exam results were declared. The boy, who was a promising football player, bagged A+ in all subjects. The minister, who had visited Sarang in hospital earlier, lauded the decision of his family to support the noble cause despite being in deep sorrow. Sarang met with an accident at Kallambalam - Nagaroor road at 3.30 pm on May 13 after the autorickshaw in which he was travelling lost control, hit an electric pole and turned turtle. The boy, who was thrown on the road, sustained serious injuries to his head and was rushed to a private hospital.

After Sarang was declared brain dead, his family gave consent for organ donation.

NEW PARLIAMENT HOUSE MUST GIVE OPPN-GOVT A CHANCE FOR FRESH START

Prime Minister Narendra Modi will inaugurate the new Parliament building on May 28. The need for a new building was felt for some time on account of India's increasing population and the consequent requirement for increasing the number of people's representatives in Parliament. The existing building had reached a saturation point vis-à-vis its ability to accommodate MPs, ministers and their staff. Then Speaker Meira Kumar formed a committee in 2012 to suggest an alternative to the existing Parliament building. But the plan to build it finally materialised in 2019 as part of the Modi government's Central Vista project. According to the statement issued by the ruling party, the new building will accommodate 1,272 MPs and last for more than 150 years.

The inauguration of the new building is also an opportunity to ponder. Will a new Parliament give democracy a fresh start by restoring debates and discussions on people's issues? Or will the political parties carry their bitterness over to the new building and continue with disruptions and boycotts of proceedings? Parliamentary proceedings have been on a downward curve, with the last budget session being the least productive in the last five years. Inflexibility on the part of the Opposition and treasury members has caused unprecedented disruptions, leading to an alarming decrease in the number of sittings, especially of the Lok Sabha. The 16th Lok Sabha sat for a record low of 331 days, and the present one (17th) has had 230 sittings so far.

If things do not improve, the current Lok Sabha is all set to earn the dubious distinction of having the lowest number of sittings. The real beauty of a legislature lies in the quality of debates for improving people's lives and ushering in legislation that fosters the constitutional ideals of justice, equality and fraternity. But the Indian Parliament has turned into a sorry spectacle in the last few years, with the two sides showing contempt for each other, resulting in a complete breakdown of all lines of communication. The inauguration of the new Parliament building gives the ruling party and the Opposition a chance to make a fresh start and resume the process of serious law-making. It will help restore people's faith in this vital institution of democracy.

CREDIT CARD TAX CUT, OVERSIGHT STILL FUTILE

An about-face is rarely good in policy-making, but the Ministry of Finance did not shy away from rolling back the contentious decision to tax overseas credit card transactions from July 1. Considering the backlash from taxpayers, the government did a 180 and withdrew the notification that was issued 48 hours earlier. The ink was barely dry, but officials seem to have realised their policy mistake and admitted the need to avoid 'procedural ambiguity' in our taxation laws. While this is welcome, what's puzzling, though, is the adamant view with which the notification was issued in the first place. The proposal was first introduced two years ago and subsequently announced in Budget 2023. Policy watchers have voiced concerns about the futility of including overseas credit card transactions under the Liberalised Remittance Scheme (LRS) with a fresh levy of 20% Tax Collected at Source (TCS) since. Thankfully, it's neatly scraped out of the policy lexicon.

Proceeding with the notification would have made overseas cash transactions attractive, reversing the gains made via digital payments and constraining taxpayers' cash flows. It would have added compliance complexity to the ongoing efforts of simplifying India's taxation regime. Credit card spending incurred during overseas travel was never part of the LRS limit, and the government was eager to bring parity with debit cards and travel cards. Their reasoning for arresting tax evasion and encouraging domestic tourism was dismissed as bureaucratic argle-bargle.

According to RBI data, international travel constituted nearly 52% of the total outward remittances under the LRS, which officials believed was being misused. But finding tax avoiders with TCS on credit cards is like digging with a needle. Instead, tax experts believe the simplest way to track forex transactions is to levy a nominal tax. Likewise, simply reducing the LRS limit from the current $250,000 a year would help limit the forex outgo and boost domestic travel.

Lastly, TCS collections must be eventually returned to taxpayers, which means not only the government incurs needless and avoidable administrative costs, but taxpayers will also lose out on the interest on savings. Regardless of the intent, the move had no takers either on the right or left and was vehemently opposed by both critics and proponents of the government. Officials must avoid policies that use a sledgehammer to crack a nut.

QUICK TAKE

CONTROLLING ILLEGAL FIREARMS

The Supreme Court asks the states about the socio-economic reasons for proliferating illegal firearms despite India's strictest gun control laws. Keeping illicit weapons is easy. Locally made in non-descript factories with powerful patronage, they come cheap, are easy to assemble and carry no markings to identify ownership. An array of arms smuggled across borders is available. They are a status symbol and primary trade tool for criminal gangs. For the youth, they are intrinsic to their cultural concept of masculinity. Vigilantism exacerbates the myth. A two-pronged strategy of social awareness campaigns and tracking unauthorised gun owners is one solution.

There are no free lunches. Everything free has a cost somewhere down the line, even if that cost tends to be hidden. Sometimes, costs are borne by future generations

ECONOMICS AND ITS MANY COLOURFUL DEFINITIONS

BIBEK DEBROY

Chairman, Economic Advisory Council to the PM

SOUMYADIP SINHA

Unless you are steeped in aspects of American history, or unless you are a science fiction fan, you will probably not recognise the expression TANSTAAFL. Robert Heinlein was a great science fiction writer. For science fiction aficionados, he will be mentioned in the same breath as Isaac Asimov and Arthur C. Clarke, perhaps even ahead of them, though Asimov and Clarke resonate much more with the general reader.

In 1966, Heinlein published a novel titled, The Moon is a Harsh Mistress. It was about a penal colony on the moon (Luna) and its relationships with earth. The third part of this novel is titled, 'TANSTAAFL', a favoured expression among residents of Luna, appropriately named Loonies. TANSTAAFL is actually an acronym and once expanded, everyone will recognise it. It stands for "There ain't no such thing as a free lunch", and is a phrase that is obviously typically American, originating from free lunches provided in US saloons to patrons who bought a drink. Salt in the food made diners thirsty and they ended up buying plenty of beer. In the process, saloons more than recouped their apparent loss.

In 1891, Rudyard Kipling wrote a series of essays titled, American Notes. The first is about San Francisco and Golden Gate and Kipling wrote, "By instinct I sought refreshment, and came upon a bar-room full of bad Salon pictures in which men with hats on the backs of their heads were wolfing food from a counter. It was the institution of the "free lunch" I had struck. You paid for a drink and got as much as you wanted to eat. For something less than a rupee a day a man can feed himself sumptuously in San Francisco, even though he be a bankrupt. Remember this if ever you are stranded in these parts."

What is economics? There can be alternative ways of defining economics as a bag of tools that provides an analytical perspective, rather than as one that provides definitive answers. The most popular of these definitions must still be that of Lionel Robbins in his 1932 essay on the nature and significance of economic science.

The bit that is quoted most often now is, "Economics is the science which studies human behaviour as a relationship between ends and scarce means which have alternative uses."

At the time, Robbins went into other possible definitions of economics and that oft-cited quote was preceded by another sentence. "But when time and the means for achieving ends are limited and capable of alternative application, then behaviour necessarily assumes the form of choice. Every act which involves time and scarce means for the achievement of one end involves the relinquishment of their use for the achievement of another."

This is staple stuff for all economists—limited resources and choices between different policies, tradeoffs and opportunity costs. What's spent on something cannot be spent on something else. Therefore, there are no free lunches. Everything that is free has a cost somewhere down the line, even if that cost tends to be hidden. Sometimes, costs are borne by future generations. As a bag of tools, that's what economists highlight—long-term consequences and costs of short-term apparent benefits, with the latter outweighing the former.

It was natural that economists would latch onto the expression of there being no free lunch. Other than Heinlein, the person who popularised it the most is Milton Friedman. His 1975 book was titled, There's No Such Thing as a Free Lunch. I am not sure who Pierre Dos Utt was, probably an economist. His name keeps cropping up. In 1949, he authored a slim monograph titled, TANSTAAFL: A Plan for a New Economic World Order. It was an obscure publisher and I haven't been able to get hold of the book.

The best account appeared in the El Paso Herald-Post on June 27, 1938. (It is available in the archived form and the story is worth a read.) It is aptly titled, Economics in Eight Words and the story, as a fable, is about a great and wise king who ruled over a populous and prosperous land. "The width and breadth of his kingdom were measured in thousands of leagues."

But suddenly, poverty descended and no one knew why this had happened. People starved and there was unhappiness everywhere. Here and there, within the government and outside, the issue was debated, just as commentators debate it today. Someone said—do this. Someone else said—do that. No one was very clear about what the solution ought to be.

"The king, seeing that his people were starving and distressed in the midst of plenty, called his wisest counsellors from the four quarters of the kingdom." The advisers and counsellors debated and disputed, but couldn't give the king a clear answer. The king threatened them with dire consequences unless they were able to draft "a short and simple text" to save the kingdom.

Something akin to a Planning Commission (in the fable, it wasn't called that) was created and, after a year, the advisers produced a prescription that had 87 volumes with 600 pages in each volume. The king was disgusted and executed half the experts in the Planning Commission. More and more experts were executed. As more and more experts were executed, the volume of the prescription became shorter and shorter. Eventually, there was only a single economist left and, threatened with execution, he had to make the message as crisp as possible.

"Speak on," cried the king, and the palace guards levelled their crossbows. But the old economist rose fearlessly to his feet, stood face to face with the king, and said, "Sire, in eight words I will reveal to you all the wisdom that I have distilled through all these years from all the writings of all the economists who once practiced their science in your kingdom. Here is my text: 'There ain't no such thing as free lunch.'" But the advice, if not the economist, always gets executed.

EMPOWERING YOUNG SCIENTISTS WILL BOOST RESEARCH ECOSYSTEM

PROF SANJAY KUMAR SHARMA

Professor (Mining), IIT (BHU), Varanasi

DR MONORANJAN MOHANTY

Adviser/Scientist 'G', Office of Principal Scientific Adviser, GOI

The need for solutions through application of science and technology is universal. But rampant application of technology without duly considering sustainability is nearly forcing us to operate like a 'risk society', in the words of Ulrich Beck. The impact of problems caused due to the failures of science and technology and its applications is increasing in scale and spread each time it strikes us. Hence, the newer applications need to be designed and applied in a flawless manner. For accomplishing this, we need scientists who are motivated, committed and competent in their fields.

A civilisation thrives or perishes depending on the capability, capacity and ecosystem of its research. The societies that support unhindered and all-round research have always been ahead. Research thrives entirely on emotional and infrastructural support. Raman's Nobel became possible due to the unconditional and liberal financial support of Ghanshyam Das Birla. (Dr C V Raman requested Birla for a huge sum of money. In the request, he committed to winning a Nobel prize within a couple of years of receiving the money. He got the money and the award.)

Often, we compare success with performance. When an athlete or any sportsperson wins a medal for the country, they get public recognition—in terms of money, jobs or brand ambassadorships for some leading brands. In contrast, scientists, despite their groundbreaking findings, hardly get due admiration from the public or from their parent organisations. The governments and registered societies have instituted a handful of medals/awards for them, but the number of scientists who receive the accolades are much fewer than sportspersons. Among scientists, the younger lot suffers more and is less resourceful than seniors. This situation is getting worse with time and the increase in retirement age.

The world is facing huge challenges: climate change, Covid-19, land degradation, frequent and devastating natural calamities like avalanches, landslides, floods and cyclones, and scanty resources to feed the ever-increasing population. In this backdrop, the role of young scientists has become challenging. The time has come for a country like India to mobilise its scientific resources, including young scientists—regardless of age, gender and scientific field. India needs to accept and encourage the views of these young scientists who, more often than not and unlike their senior colleagues, think unconventionally to solve problems. This often results in regular conflicts at the workplace. They need a voice and must be heard and supported to produce wonders.

According to VIDWAN, a Government of India database containing scientists' profiles, there are nearly 10,744 scientists working in agricultural sciences, 6,752 in biological sciences, 8,149 in chemical sciences, 68,748 in engineering and technology, 18,771 in medical sciences, and 16,544 in physical sciences. However, the global position of India in the science and technology (S&T) sector is not encouraging even though we have improved our rankings in the Global Innovation Index (81 in 2015 to 40 in 2022) and the number of scientific articles published (Third place globally). Considering the number of scientists in India, we are far behind in our performance compared to smaller countries like South Korea, Israel, and some European countries. We are also far behind in getting patents as opposed to China, the US and South Korea. It is estimated that over 55% of scientists in India are below 45 years of age. This huge 'pool of talent' has to be empowered and engaged to help India take a giant leap in science and technology research.

> The most important thing lacking in the Indian research ecosystem is commensurately rewarding scientists for their good work. Incentivising scientists for their work has proven to reap benefits in different countries

One of the mandates of the office of the Principal Scientific Adviser (PSA) to the Government of India is to empower the Science, Technology and Innovation (STI) ecosystem to enable India to achieve her rightful place in the comity of nations. To this end, the nurturing and empowerment of the next generation of young scientists and researchers in the early stages of their careers is an initiative that will determine the future direction of scientific leadership in research and development. Efforts are being made to develop policy recommendations for building a research-conducive ecosystem for young scientists through online questionnaires, brainstorming sessions and international webinars.

In a recently conducted survey by the office of the PSA, more than 2,000 young scientists wanted a secure research environment, including seed funding to start research, flexibility in using the funds obtained, autonomy to scientists in decision-making processes, more collaborative research opportunities, and better career growth.

Some salient recommendations from the Indian diaspora in a recently held international webinar included focus on soft skills, talent recognition and mentorship, project investigator's grant to young scientists, international collaboration through establishment of MoUs with foreign universities, streamlining international travels of scientists for collaborative research and attending important seminars, and recognising the expertise of young scientists at an early stage and funding their research work, etc.

The most important thing lacking in the Indian research ecosystem is commensurately rewarding scientists for their good work. Incentivising scientists for their work has proven to reap benefits in different countries. They should be made stakeholders in the projects, deciding niche areas of research, evaluating projects, consulting, and reaping the commercial benefits of the products post-commercialisation.

Research institutes must share their overhead components with project investigators to enable them in updating their tools, training, skilling and networking without any restriction. Personal/informal meetings create greater trust, collaboration and the understanding needed for joint ventures, without which long-term solution-providing research for real-life problems cannot be undertaken.

Real problems

The curtains are finally down on the high-voltage drama witnessed between the two powerful contenders for the Karnataka CM's post. The day is not far off for selecting cabinet ministers for lucrative and meaty berths. In the euphoria of victory, how will the perennial problems of Bengaluru like those nasty potholes, flooded streets and frothing lakes disappear? Who has the magic wand?

C S Hayavadana Rao, Bengaluru

Promises galore

Apropos of Governance must take precedence over camp politics in Karnataka (May 19). This is timely and thought provoking. Power struggles are routine in the Congress. People voted for the Congress because it promised them free electricity of up to 200 units and free public transport for women. Mere words and empty slogans will not give any instant relief to the people. New CM Siddaramaiah should fulfill these promises.

A Muppidathiraj, Tenkasi

2024 prep

At least for now, it seems sense has prevailed upon the two stalwarts of the Karnataka Congress to accept the inevitable. A critical period lies ahead as the 2024 election approaches. Instead of being euphoric, the Congress party should actively give the message of unity.

Jitendranath Guru, Padampur

Misusing law

This is with reference to Concerns raised over misuse of law aimed to protect health workers (May 19). This is really a very big concern. Protecting health workers is essential and cannot be compromised at any cost. But at the same time, the staff should be advised and closely monitored. The good work should be appreciated and rewarded, while action should be taken against those who misuse and defame the system.

Akbar Kelan, Mannarkkad

Jallikattu verdict

It is heartening to note that the SC has ruled in favour of Jallikattu, considering its traditional and cultural significance in TN. It would be prudent now for the state government to take steps to ensure that all the regulations with regard to the bulls and tamers are strictly enforced and the event is conducted in an amicable manner.

M Rishidev, Dindigul

Cricket battles

A great comeback by Kohli's RCB which beat SRH on Thursday. It has entered the playoffs, leaving Mumbai Indians behind in the fifth spot. With one great win in the previous match against Rajasthan Royals, RCB has launched itself to the fourth place. "Ee sala cup namde!"

CHANTS of 'Modi, Modi' echoed in Hiroshima in Japan as the Indian disapora extended a warm welcome to Prime Minister a warm welcome. Modi has a tight schedule in Hiroshima, which includes bilateral meetings with leaders of G-7 and also the Quad meeting. He is also scheduled to meet Ukrainian President Vlodomoyr Zelenskyy.

"It will be a pleasure to meet PM Fumio Kishida again. My presence in the G7 Summit is particularly meaningful as India holds the G20 Presidency this year. I look forward to exchanging views with the G7 countries and other invited partners on challenges that the world faces and the need to collectively address them,'' said the Prime Minister.

"PM Modi will first have a bilateral meeting with Japanese Prime Minister Fumio Kishida, early morning on Saturday. Following the meeting PM Modi will unveil a Bust of Mahatma Gandhi,'' said a source.

The other bilateral meetings will be with Ukraine, Korea, Vietnam and France at the G7 Summit venue.

PM Modi and President Zelenskyy will have the first in-person meeting after the outbreak of the conflict between Ukraine and Russia on February 24, 2022. Modi has had telephonic talks with President Zelenskyy urging him to resolve the conflict through dialogue and diplomacy. He had communicated the same to the Russian President Vladimir Putin and reiterated that this is ₹no era for war.'

"India's regular participation in the G7 Summits (this is the 10 time that India has been invited) clearly points to increasing recognition that India should be a part of any serious effort to resolve international challenges, including those of peace, security, development and environmental preservation,'' said Foreign Secretary, Vinay Kwatra.

Late evening on Saturday, around 8 pm Hiroshima local time, the Quad leaders will meet for the Quad Leaders' Summit. This will be attended by PM Modi, US President Joe Biden, PM Kishida and Australian Prime Minister Anthony Albanese. Before embarking on a tour of Japan, Papua New Guinea and Australia, PM Modi in a statement said: "I look forward to our bilateral meeting, which will be an opportunity to take stock of our bilateral ties and follow up on our first India-Australia annual summit held in New Delhi in March this year."

He said that he would be interacting with Australian CEOs and business leaders, and meeting the Indian diaspora in Sydney at a special event. Be it known that the PM's visit to Papua New Guinea will be the first ever by any Indian prime minister. "I am grateful that all 14 Pacific Island Countries (PIC) have accepted the invitation to attend this important summit (FIPIC)," said the prime minister. Sources in the PMO said the PM is visiting the Japanese city of Hiroshima from May 19 to 21 primarily for the annual summit of the G7 advanced economies in the first leg of his visit.

From Japan, the PM Modi will travel to Port Moresby in Papua New Guinea with a plan host the third summit of the FIPIC on May 22 jointly with Prime Minister James Marape. In the last leg of visit, the PM Modi will be visiting Australia from May 22 to 24.

CUET-UG exam deferred in J&K, riot-hit Manipur

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

THE Common University Entrance Test-Undergraduate (CUET-UG) has been cancelled and deferred in Jammu and Kashmir and Manipur, the UGC and NTA announced Friday.

The exams in Jammu and Kashmir will be held from May 26, announced University Grants Commission (UGC) Chairman Prof M. Jagadesh Kumar. The step was taken following demands by the students that they have to travel to another state to take the exam.

Earlier, the NTA had announced that exams in Manipur have been deferred to May 29 in view of the law and order situation

In a tweet, the UGC Chairman said, "Being sensitive to the needs of candidates and to facilitate the students of Jammu and Kashmir, the NTA is exploring the possibility of creating temporary centres in Jammu and Kashmir. In view of the above, it has been decided that the CUET (UG) 2023 examination will now be conducted from 26 May onwards in the Union Territory."

It has been decided that the CUET (UG)-2023 examination scheduled for May 21 to 25 May is cancelled in the UT. When asked for the reason, the UGC chief told this paper that the step was taken following requests from the students. "Many of them were given centres outside J&K due to the non-availability of centres. NTA is now working to find additional centres with the help of government administration," the UGC chairman said, adding that they are trying all possibilities to help students.

He said that there has been a "phenomenal increase" in the number of students – 87,309 unique candidates – from Jammu and Kashmir.

The state students association had earlier asked the Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan and the Jammu and Kashmir Lt Governor Manoj Sinha to intervene in the matter so that students from the state don't have to travel to different parts of the country to take the exam.

The second edition of the undergraduate entrance exam is set to begin in the country on May 21. Though it was earlier scheduled to end on May 31, the NTA decided to extend the exam schedule by at least four days to accommodate the higher number of candidates in certain cities.

CUET -UG SCHEDULE

- May 21 to 25 - CUET (UG)-2023 exam schedule across India, except J&K and Manipur
- May 26 onwards: In Jammu & Kashmir
- May 29 onwards: In Manipur
- 87,309 unique candidates - "phenomenal increase" in number of students from Jammu and Kashmir
- 3,697 candidates had earlier opted to appear for CUET in Manipur

Boost for forces: Defence production crosses ₹1L crore for the first time

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE value of defence production in India in financial year 2022-23 has crossed Rs one lakh crore for the first time.

The Ministry of Defence on Friday stated, "As a result of the consistent efforts, the value currently stands at ₹1,06,800 crore and it will go further higher once the data is received from the remaining private defence industries."

The current value of defence production in India in FY 2022-23 is a rise of more than 12 per cent over FY 2021-22 when the figure was ₹95,000 crore.

The Government is continuously working with defence industries and their associations to remove the challenges faced by them and promote defence production in the country.

A number of policy reforms have been taken to achieve the objective of ease of doing business, including the integration of MSMEs and start-ups into the supply chain.

Due to these policies, industries, including MSMEs and start-ups, are forthcoming in defence design, development and manufacturing and there is almost a 200 per cent increase in the number of defence licenses issued to the industries in the last eight years by the Union government.

"These measures have given a boost to the defence industrial manufacturing ecosystem in the country and generated tremendous employment opportunities." the MoD said.

The focus is to change the status of India as one of the largest importers of arms globally. As per the estimates, an amount of $130 billion is to be spent on defence Capital Procurement in five years.

The government is working towards reducing dependence on imported military platforms and has decided to support domestic defence manufacturing. Infusing funds towards procurement, "A record 75 per cent (approx. Rs one lakh crore) of the defence capital procurement budget has been earmarked for domestic industry in Financial Year (FY) 2023-24, up from 68% in 2022-23," Defence Minister Rajnath Singh said in February.

'Give details of Anand Mohan's release'

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday directed the Bihar government to produce original records related to grant of remission to Anand Mohan, who was sentenced to life imprisonment for mob lynching of Gopal Ganj District Magistrate G Krishnaiah in 1994.

The former MP was released on April 24 after serving imprisonment for 14 years on account of the remission granted by the state government.

A bench led by Justice Surya Kant in its order said, "State counsel is directed to produce the original records which led to the grant of remission to respondent 4 by order dated April 24, 2023."

The court order came in a plea filed by the wife of the slain IAS officer. She challenged the circular dated April 10 issued by the Bihar Home Department (Prisons) which made persons convicted for murder of public servant eligible for remission. Mohan was subsequently released.

A bench of justices Surya Kant and JK Maheshwari on May 8 sought response of the Bihar government, Anand Mohan and the Centre in the plea filed by Uma Krishnaiah, wife of the slain IAS officer.

Stating that the state's decision has been taken on extraneous considerations, she said the state while releasing Mohan ignored relevant factors such as conduct of the prisoner in the jail and past criminal antecedents.

It has also been contended that state's amendment to its remission policy did not consider the fact of Mohan being convicted for murder of public servants on duty is contrary to public policy, and it amounts to demoralising public servants.

The petition also asserted for application of the state policy which was prevalent at the time of commission of the offence.

"Notification dated April 10, 2023 and consequent order dated April 24, 2023 is ex-facie illegal being against the settled principles of law and have been passed on the basis of extraneous considerations," the petition stated.

'SC/ST ACT: DESIRABLE THAT UTTERANCES MADE IN PUBLIC ARE OUTLINED'

The Supreme Court said on Friday it is desirable that utterances made by an accused within public view are outlined at least in the charge sheet before the person is subjected to trial under a provision of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989. The top court observed it will enable courts to ascertain whether the charge sheet makes out a case under the SC/ST Act, prior to taking cognisance of the offence. The apex court was dealing with a matter in which a person was charge-sheeted for alleged offences, including under section 3(1)(x).

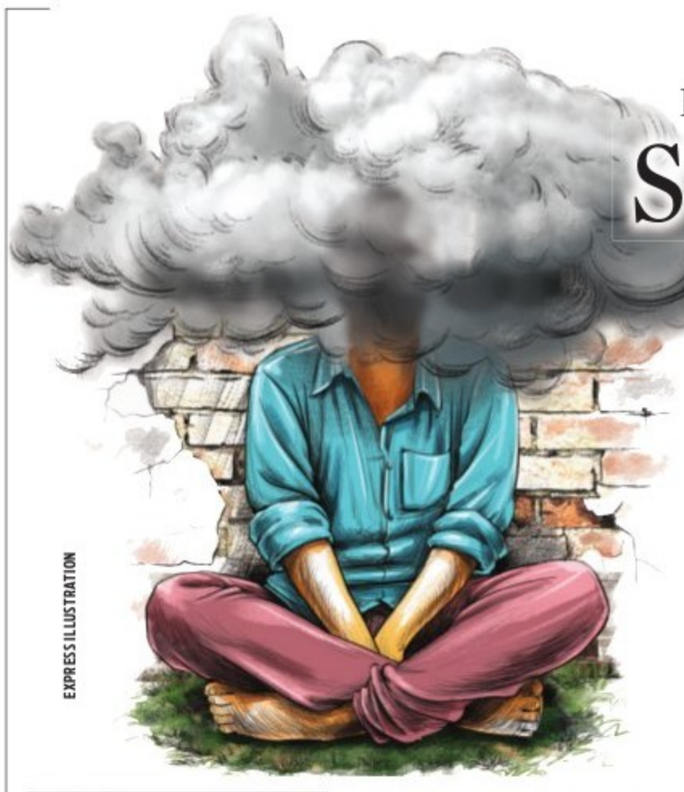
PK Mishra, Vishwanathan take oath

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE SC on Friday got two new judges as CJI DY Chandrachud administered oath to Justice Prashant Kumar Mishra and Senior Advocate KV Vishwanathan as SC judges.

The Centre notified the appointments of the duo late at night on Thursday irrespective of the Union Law Ministry undergoing a major rejig on the same day by assigning Minister of State Arjun Ram Meghwal independent charge of the Union law ministry and shifting Kiren Rijiju to the Ministry of Earth Sciences. Minister of State for Law and Justice SP Singh Baghel was moved to the health ministry.

With their appointment, the Supreme Court not only got new CJI (Justice KV Vishwanathan) who would take over the helm of affairs from Justice JB Pardiwala.



EXPRESS ILLUSTRATION

EXPLAINER • HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

HYPERTENSION EPIDEMIC IN INDIA

STRESS KILLS

India is facing a massive hypertension epidemic, with 200 million individuals affected and a high prevalence of diabetes. The Union Health Ministry has launched an ambitious "75/25" plan to bring 75 million hypertensive and diabetic populations under standard care by 2025, marking the largest effort in the world against Non-Communicable Diseases (NCDs).

What is Hypertension?

Hypertension is characterised by abnormally high blood pressure that exerts excessive force on artery walls. It is typically defined as blood pressure above 140/90, with severe cases exceeding 180/120.

Symptoms

Although often symptomless, people with very high blood pressure can experience severe headaches, chest pain, dizziness, difficulty breathing, nausea, vomiting, blurred vision or other vision changes, anxiety, buzzing in the ears, nosebleeds, and abnormal heart rhythm.

Mortality

Only 12% of India's estimated 200 million hypertensive individuals have their blood pressure under control, highlighting the critical need for effective treatment. Hypertension is the leading cause of adult deaths, placing strain on the heart and causing thickening of the left ventricle. This significantly raises the risk of heart attack, heart failure, and sudden cardiac death.

Why are Indians More Susceptible?

Multiple factors, including the sodium-rich Indian diet, genetic predisposition, socioeconomic factors, and lifestyle choices, influence India's high hypertension prevalence. Studies indicate that nearly 30% of the Indian population is affected by hypertension, emphasising its significant health impact.

Young Indians in Hypertension Vortex

Hypertension is increasing among young adults in India, with a prevalence ranging from 10% to 30%, as reported by healthcare professionals. Risk factors such as smoking, mental stress, and obesity contribute to this concerning trend.

Awareness

Despite a high prevalence of hypertension in India, awareness and treatment levels are low. Approximately 33% of urban and 25% of rural Indians have hypertension, but only a quarter of rural patients and around 42% of urban Indians are aware of their condition. Treatment rates are suboptimal, with only 25% of rural and 38% of urban Indians receiving treatment. Many individuals are unaware of the strain on their hearts due to inadequate condition management.

Initiatives

India aims to address the hypertension problem by 2025 through the India Hypertension Control Initiative (IHCI). The government plans to reach 75 million people with hypertension and has begun training primary healthcare professionals. They also use the Shashakt Portal to improve screening, diagnosis, and treatment rates.

The Way Forward

Collaboration among healthcare providers, policymakers, community organisations, and individuals is crucial for promoting a healthy lifestyle and managing hypertension effectively.

Summer crops acreage declines amid forecast of weak monsoon

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

THE possibility of weaker as well as delayed southwest monsoon has started showing its impact on the early sowing of summer crops. The consecutive two-week summer crop sowing data (May 5-11 and May 12-19) show a decrease in sowing areas, especially rice.

About 28.07 lakh hectare area under summer rice has been reported compared to 30.28 lakh hectare during corresponding period of last year.

The gap of 1.91 lakh hectare area during May 5-12 got further increased to 2.21 lakh hectare area during May 12-19.

There is a decrease in the sowing area of maize. Pulses acreage is little changed, while oilseeds coverage increased.

The overall sowing of all crops has decreased. There is 69.97 lakh hectare area coverage under summer crops compared to 71.92 lakh hectare area during the corresponding period of last year.

A senior official in the Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers' Welfare said: "Mid of June sowing data would reveal sowing trend not now."

The Indian Meteorological Department (IMD) has forecast a near normal monsoon and slight delay in arrival of monsoon season.

The 'Mocha' cyclone in the Bay of Bengal has weakened the monsoon further as the cyclone extracted the existing moisture. Additionally, there is an initial indication of the formation of a new cyclone in the Bay of Bengal. However, IMD has formally declined it.

Meanwhile, the IMD is tracking the advancement of the Southwest monsoon says the monsoon has further advanced into some parts of the Southeast Bay of Bengal, Nicobar Islands and South Andaman Sea today. Meanwhile, a fresh Western Disturbance will likely hit northwest India next week.

It would cause scattered to fairly widespread rainfall and thunderstorms over northwest India next week.

Tur prices shoot up to ₹10K a quintal

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

AS the price of pigeon pea (tur/arhar) pulses goes north, the government has changed its stand on procurement. It has "informally" stopped the procurement as the price of arhar increased 40% from its fixed minimum support price (MSP). Meanwhile, African pulses consignment is awaited to maintain the buffer stock.

The wholesale price of tur reached nearly Rs 10,000 a quintal, while the MSP is Rs 6,600 a quintal. India is the world's largest producer, consumer and importer of pulses. Rising prices of food items ahead of general elections in 2024 make the government nervous. Besides tur, black gram prices are also increasing. Black gram's price reached nearly Rs 9,000/quintal while MSP is Rs 6,600.

"Formally, we have not announced stopping of procurement," says a senior official at the National Cooperative Consumers Federation of India (NCCF), the top cooperative body engaged in procurement of pulses.

Rahul moves HC in defamation case filed in Jharkhand

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

FORMER Congress President Rahul Gandhi has knocked the doors of Jharkhand High Court door, challenging the lower court's order directing him to remain physically present on May 22 during a hearing on a defamation case against him.

Rahul approached the HC after a special MP-MLA Court on May 3 rejected his petition seeking exemption from personal appearance in the 'Modi surname' case. Rahul has filed a petition through lawyers Piyush Chitresh and Dipankar Rai.

"We have filed a petition on behalf of Rahul Gandhi in Jharkhand High Court challenging the lower court's order in which he has been asked to appear in connection with a defamation suit filed against him in the MP-MLA Court in Ranchi. We have taken a stand that the case does not stand against him and hence, he need to appear in the court in this case," said advocate Chitresh. Hurt by the statement made by Rahul Gandi terming 'why all thieves share the 'Modi surname,' Pradeep Modi had filed defamation case against him in Ranchi. The MP-MLA Court of Anamika Kisku dismissed his petition seeking exemption from physical appearance saying that Rahul Gandhi has not mentioned any special circumstances for his exemption from physical appearance, while he keeps on moving around the country for party work and other cases.

The court in its dismissal order also mentioned that law is equal for all and thus it is expected from Rahul Gandhi to remain physically president during trial. Incidentally, Rahul Gandhi, who has been sentenced two year imprisonment by a Surat Court, is also facing two other defamation charges in Jharkhand for his defamatory remarks against the then BJP President Amit Shah.

One case is pending in Ranchi while another one is pending in Chaibasa.

Chouhan's unity call amid dissonance

At party executive meet, MP CM asks leaders to 'respect elders, give space to newcomers'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

WITH the assembly polls only five months away, the ruling BJP held its day-long expanded state executive meeting at the Madhya Pradesh party headquarters in Bhopal on Friday with a focus on party unity.

The meeting was attended by over 1,000 seniors party leaders, including the central party in-charge for the state P Murlidhar Rao, Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan, BJP state chief VD Sharma, Union minister Narendra Singh Tomar, national general secretary, Tarun Chugh and Kailash Vijayvargiya, state organization general secretary of BJP Hitanand Sharma, BJP MLAs, MPs and district panchayat heads and members. The day-long meeting focused on fighting the coming polls with unity.

The call for unity assumed significance in view of the growing voices of dissent within the party in the recent past by veteran leaders over growing influence of newcomers and recent switchover by former CM Kailash Joshi's ex-minister son Deepak Joshi to the Congress.

Addressing the concluding session of the executive in the evening, the CM (amid reports of discontent brewing among party veterans and growing disconnect between lawmakers, ministers and party workers) appealed to everyone to be large-hearted and work for the party's victory with an even bigger majority than in the past.

Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan joins state BJP leaders to light traditional lamp before the state party executive meeting in Bhopal on Friday | EXPRESS

"We've to take everyone along, which means Purano ka samman aur naye ko sthaan (due respect for the elders and enough space for newcomers). Be large-hearted, as the BJP doesn't fight polls to make MP, MLAs or CM, it fights elections for taking the country ahead and for public welfare. That should be our only motive as we go into the polls together," he said.

Sending the message to all senior leaders for becoming more accessible to party workers, the CM said all party workers/leaders leaving for their respective district tonight are welcome to meet me at CM House from 8 pm to 10 pm this evening, while those leaving on Saturday are welcome between 10 am and 12 noon tomorrow. "We need to give equal respect to one and all."

Earlier, in the day, while addressing the inaugural session, state party chief VD Sharma too, alerted the party's rank and file about Congress's targeted move of spreading lies to divide and rule. "We need to be alert about Congress's designs of spreading lies to divide and rule. All our party workers should become the party's spokesperson before the people and remind them about the decade of misrule of Digvijaya Singh-led Congress government (1993-2003) and the achievements of the BJP governments thereafter."

The party's state general secretary and Rajya Sabha member Kavita Patidar, shared the details of a month-long statewide campaign (May 30 to June 30) to mark the completion of the Modi government's nine years in power at the Centre.

The month-long campaign will see central leaders, including Union ministers address rallies in all Lok Sabha constituencies. Prior to these rallies, senior leaders of the party, including the MP CM and state party chief will hold talks with social media influencers and select families, particularly celebrated families, among them sportspersons and other icons.

On June 23 (the death anniversary of Syama Prasad Mukherjee), PM Modi will address 10 lakh booth-level workers of the party through video-conferencing. Two days later (the anniversary of the imposition of the Emergency), special meetings will be held in various assembly segments.

Country's first night safari in Lucknow

The Central Zoo Authority has cleared India's first night safari in Lucknow. The CZA has issued its consent letter on May 15 for setting up of the night safari and a new zoo in Kukrail forest area at a cost of ₹15,000 crore. The safari to be developed on the pattern of one in Singapore will come up over an area of 350 acre while the zoo will cover another 150 acres of the vast expanse of the Kukrail jungle area of the city. The Uttar Pradesh cabinet had cleared the proposal last month, now the forest department will take out bids to hire a consultant to prepare the detailed project report.

Rajbhar's attack on Yogi government

With his overtures to its old ally BJP to get pally again not yielding any encouraging result, SBSP chief Om Prakash Rajbhar is again back to his belligerent self. Speaking in Ballia on Tuesday, Rajbhar in a full blown attack on the Yogi Adityanath government said that corruption in the UP government was one of the reasons behind the fall of the BJP in Karnataka, Rajbhar said: "Corruption in UP is no less than in Karnataka. Rahul Gandhi had accused the Bommai government of being a 40% commission government, but the UP government is no less." Rajbhar fought the 2022 UP elections in alliance with SP, but the ties turned sour soon after the polls.

Ordinance to regain control of Delhi babus

ANUP VERMA @ New Delhi

DAYS after the Supreme Court ruled that the Delhi government has legislative powers over all administrative services except matters pertaining to land, police and public order, the Centre on Friday took the ordinance route to set up an authority that will decide on all postings and transfers.

Called the National Capital Civil Service Authority, it will make recommendations to the Lt Governor regarding transfer posting, vigilance and other incidental matters of Group-A officers from the DANICS cadre.

The authority comprises the Delhi chief minister as its head and Delhi chief secretary and principal home secretary as members. All matters will be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and authenticated by the principal home secretary, the member secretary of the authority.

In other words, AAP convenor and Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal will not have the final word on transfers and postings of officers.

Earlier in the day, he had criticised the L-G for delaying his assent to a file recommending the transfer of Services Secretary Ashish More.

5,000 MoUs signed by UP likely to get off the ground by Sept this year

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

HAVING attracted investment proposals worth over ₹35 lakh crore during the UP Global Investors' Summit in February 2023 (UPGIS-2023), the Uttar Pradesh government is now gearing up to get the projects off the ground in the proposed groundbreaking ceremony (GBC) in September-October, this year.

With the preparations for the ceremony is already on, the state government has contacted about 8,000 investors for participation and has shortlisted more than 5,000 MoUs worth around ₹7.86 lakh crore for realisation.

Uttar Pradesh State Industrial Development Authority (UPSIDA) is all set to implement investment proposals worth ₹40,000 crore in the first groundbreaking ceremony.

At the same time, the process of grounding another set of MoUs worth ₹42,000 crore in the GBC is underway.

In fact, UPSIDA was given the highest investment target of ₹1.60 lakh crore, of which 224 MoUs worth more than ₹82,000 crore have been shortlisted for execution so far.

As per the sources in Invest UP, the nodal agency looking after the processing of investment proposals, MoUs were shortlisted in coordination with different departments which were directed by the state government to contact and hold discussions with the investors ready to execute their MoUs in the first ground-breaking ceremony.

As per the official sources, UP government has set a target to implement MoUs worth more than ₹10 lakh crore in the state through the ground-breaking ceremonies. Different departments, which received the investment proposals during investors meet, were given specific targets for the ground-breaking ceremony.

Union minister Teni gets HC relief in 2004 murder case

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

GIVING reprieve to Minister of State for Home, Ajay Mishra Teni, the Lucknow bench of Allahabad High Court comprising Justice AR Masoodi and Justice OP Shukla, on Friday, upheld his acquittal as ordered by a trial court in a 23-year-old murder case dismissing the criminal appeal filed by UP government against him.

The HC in the order said that there was no error in trial court's verdict.

Teni was the prime accused in murder case of student leader Prabhat Gupta who was killed near his house in Tikonia over panchayat elections in Lakhimpur Kheri in 2000. Four persons, including Ajay Mishra Teni, were booked under IPC sections.

The trial court had acquitted Teni in 2004 but the UP government had challenged the acquittal before the HC. Against the order of the lower court, a revision plea was also filed by the father of deceased Prabhat Gupta before the HC.

The revision was admitted in February 2005 and was clubbed with the criminal appeal filed by the UP government.

Crowded Haridwar to get pod taxis ahead of Metro services

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

Haridwar is going to get personalised rapid transport (PRT) taxi service, which will also end the problem of heavy traffic jams in the city and Rishikesh. Haridwar is the second city of its kind in the country after Uttar Pradesh, where POD taxis will operate. Earlier, the first POD project in the country connecting Jewar Airport with the proposed Film City in Noida is going to be operational soon.

These project works, which are going to be started under the aegis of Uttarakhand Metro Rail Corporation (UMRC), announced the commencement of work on these projects on Friday. The coming up of these projects will ease traffic pressure in Dehradun, Haridwar and Rishikesh, which are often badly affected by Char Dham Yatra traffic and traffic jams during the tourist season.

The corporation will simultaneously start work on these projects. Addressing a press conference at the UMRC headquarters on Haridwar Bypass Road on Friday, Jitendra Tyagi, managing director of the corporation, said, "Work on the Personalised Rapid Transport (PRT) project for Haridwar city, under which pod taxis will be operated, will start soon. A 2.3-km-long ropeway from Har-Ki-Pauri to Chandi Devi in Haridwar city, a 6.5-km-long ropeway from ISBT to Neelkanth Mahadev Temple in Rishikesh will be built." He said work is also underway on the action plan of the Dehradun Neo Metro project, which the state government has approved and sent its report to the Centre.

Haridwar and Rishikesh, where traffic jams are frequent due to the heavy rush of tourists and pilgrims, will get great relief" said MD Jitendra Tyagi.

"Under the Haridwar Darshan scheme, POD taxis will operate on four routes with a total length of 20.74 km, with total number of stations 21," Tyagi said.

No govt help for inmates, including kids, in camps

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Imphal

AS one enters the dingy rooms at the Moirang Multipurpose Higher Secondary School, the stench of stale air is softened by the mirth of playing children. The school in Bishenpur district of Manipur's Imphal valley has been turned into a relief camp for people displaced by the ethnic clashes between the Meiteis and Kukis. The inmates have come from localities in the Kuki-majority Churachandpur town and villages such as Torbung, Saiton and Kangvai bordering Churachandpur district.

Not enough space

Altogether 386 inmates, all of them Meiteis, are living in 15 bare rooms with four toilets and a filthy pond outside to bathe in and wash clothes. Life is no better in the remaining other relief camps set up in the district. The inmates are surviving on foodstuffs provided by various civil society organisations and individuals. Shyamkumar Ayekpak and Shalki Devi, both volunteers at the relief camp, said the government has not provided any relief material yet. The camp was set up more than ten days ago.

"The only help from the state government is coming in the form of drinking water, provided by the Public Health Engineering Department. The local MLA is spending from his pocket to help the people. Other individuals and civil society organisations are also helping," Shalki Devi said. Initially, over 780 people had taken refuge here and with time, some 400 of them left to live with their relatives in the Imphal valley. Shalki Devi said the inmates are surviving mostly on rice and dal. Black tea with biscuits is served in breakfast and evening snacks.

Kids traumatised

"The children are not happy at all. Secondly, they are not getting enough space to play. We provided them with 2-3 footballs. The violence had a psychological bearing on some of them," she said. "The other day, when we asked the children to stand in a queue as chocolates were to be distributed, one of them asked if they would be shot. They are traumatised," she added. Another relief camp set up at the Okshongbung Birachandra High School in the vicinity has 300 displaced people. Even here, they are surviving on donations from the public.

GROUND ZERO MANIPUR

"We have received no assistance so far from the government. Some clubs and civil society organisations are feeding us," asked Shantikumar Sagolsem, an inmate. At the Kwakta Government High School relief camp, local Muslims are helping the displaced people. Two toilets are catering to 70 inmates, who include three lactating mothers and 15 children. "The children are facing a lot of difficulties. Muslim brothers and sisters are helping us with food," said Boboi Ningthoujam, an inmate. The Kukis are lodged at relief camps in the hills. A relief camp set up at the Rostad Memorial High School in Churachandpur has 1,191 inmates, including 251 children and some pregnant women.

Normalcy awaited

Seventy-year-old Thopau Vaiphei said a youth organisation, called Young Vaiphei Association, is providing them with food. "The members of the organisation visit villages to collect relief materials for us. The government hasn't helped us," said the old man. Manipur health minister Sapam Ranjan said the state government is taking measures to make sure relief reaches all points wherever needed. "I am monitoring the situation on a daily basis to also make sure that people going through mental trauma are taken care of. Mental health teams will visit the relief camps across the state," the minister said.

He said the situation was now relatively peaceful with the relaxation of curfew, reopening of offices and banks. "I am sure we will have complete peace and normalcy very soon across the state," he added.

Rights panel takes note of tribal woman's torture

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

TAKING suo-moto cognizance over the incident in Palamu where a woman was tonsured, garlanded with shoes and left in the jungle to die after being brutally beaten up by the villagers allegedly for refusing to marry a man of her family's choice in Jogidih village, the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) has issued a notice to the Jharkhand government seeking a detailed report in this regard.

This newspaper was the first to report the incident. According to the notice issued to the Chief Secretary (CS) and the Director General of Police (DGP) on May 18, the commission has sought a detailed report within four weeks including the status of the FIR registered by the police, medical treatment of the victim and compensation if any, granted to her.

"The contents of the media report, if true, amounts to a violation of the human rights of the victim at the behest of a village Panchayat. The perpetrators of such an immoral and unlawful act cannot be allowed to go scot-free in a civilized society governed by the rule of law," sated an official communiqué by NHRC.

The authorities are expected to explain in the report the status of the installment of the compensation given to the victim, who is eligible for the same as per the provisions of the Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, it said.

The official communiqué further added that they are also expected to intimate the status of any counselling provided to the victim, who suffered the trauma of physical pain, humiliation, and social stigma.

The Commission would also like to know about the action taken against the delinquent officers, responsible for the tragedy, it said.

G7 countries slam Beijing over build up of N-arsenal

Call it a concern to global stability in talks on nuclear disarmament

HIROSHIMA

CHINA'S rapidly growing nuclear arsenal is a "concern to global and regional stability", Group of Seven (G7) leaders said on Friday after talks on nuclear disarmament in the Japanese city of Hiroshima.

The Stockholm Peace Research Institute (SIPRI) think tank estimates that China has a stockpile of around 350 nuclear warheads — a small sum when compared with the United States and Russia.

But it is growing fast, and the country could have 1,500 warheads by 2035, according to a Pentagon estimate published in November.

Concerns about the build-up have been growing in the West, and the G7 leaders warned that expansion "without transparency nor meaningful dialogue poses a concern to global and regional stability".

Since its first nuclear test in 1964, China has been content to maintain a comparatively modest arsenal and has maintained that it will never be the first to use nuclear weapons in a conflict. But in recent years, under President Xi Jinping, it has begun a massive military modernisation drive that includes upgrading its nuclear weapons to not only deter foes but also be able to counter-attack if deterrence fails.

In April, foreign ministers from G7 wealthy democracies also warned over the expansion of China's nuclear capacity, urging "strategic risk reduction discussions" with Washington and greater transparency from Beijing.

G7 leaders, who earlier Friday laid wreaths at a memorial to the estimated 1,40,000 people killed in the nuclear bombing of Hiroshima, also took aim at Russia. They condemned its "irresponsible nuclear rhetoric" and called a plan to station nuclear weapons in Belarus "dangerous and unacceptable". The document is the first time a G7 summit has produced a leaders' statement focused on nuclear disarmament, a reflection of efforts by Japan's Prime Minister Fumio Kishida, who is from Hiroshima.

He has sought to push the issue up the agenda at the three-day talks, and earlier led the leaders around the Hiroshima peace museum, where they confronted evidence of the suffering inflicted by the August 6, 1945 US nuclear attack. AFP

Police search Imran's house, hands him list of 2,200 wanted criminals

LAHORE

AUTHORITIES in Pakistan's Punjab province on Friday met ousted prime minister Imran Khan at his highly-fortified residence here to arrest 'terrorists' reportedly hiding there and handed over a list of 2,200 suspects involved in the recent protests that targeted military installations buildings.

The veteran leader was arrested by the paramilitary Pakistan Rangers at the Islamabad High Court premises on May 9, which triggered unrest across the country.

For the first time in Pakistan's history, protesters stormed the army headquarters (GHQ) in Rawalpindi and also torched a corps commander's house in Lahore.

A delegation comprising Lahore Commissioner Muhammad Ali Randhawa, Lahore Deputy Commissioner Rafia Haider and DIG Operations Sadiq Dogar visited Khan, the chairman of the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) party at his Zaman Park residence and held a 90-minute meeting with him.

They handed the names of people involved in the attack on the Lahore Corps Commander House and Askari Tower and evidence was handed over to him by the police.

Punjab information minister Amir Mir said the former premier was handed a list of 2,200 'wanted people' involved in the attacks on military installations during the May 9 violence, claiming that these people were traced via geofencing.

"Among these people are also people from his family who have been named in the list," he told Geo News. Some of these people Mir said have been named in the list include Khan's nephew Hassan Niazi and cousin Zubair Niazi.

Mir claimed that people 'in disguise' were caught fleeing Zaman Park on Thursday night. "But no agreement was reached regarding a search operation," Mir said. "We did not want to take an extreme step. Therefore, headed by the Lahore commissioner, a three-member delegation visited Khan's residence and held a 1.5-hour meeting with him," he said.

Punjab Interim Chief Minister Mohsin Naqvi on Friday said he has ordered the removal of police deployment outside the former PM's residence, but on condition that 'encroachments inside Zaman Park' are removed. PTI

Country-based quota behind long wait time for Indians, says official

NEW YORK: The long and agonising wait for green cards for people from India, China, Mexico and the Philippines is mainly due to the country-based quota system in its allocation which can be changed only by the US Congress, a senior American official has said. A Green Card, known officially as a Permanent Resident Card, is a document issued to immigrants to the US as evidence that the bearer has been granted the privilege of residing permanently. The per-country caps are numerical limits on the issuance of green cards to individuals from certain countries. Immigration law provides for approximately 1,40,000 employment-based green cards to be issued each year. However, only seven per cent of those green cards can go to individuals from a single country on a yearly basis. PTI

MAGIC MONEY SCAMS LURE HUNDREDS

In Muslim-majority Indonesia, where nearly 10% of the population live below the poverty line, some view shamans as traditional healers. But several Indonesians have reported in recent months that they were scammed by people claiming to be spiritual figures, promising to turn small investments into immense wealth. Police say some alleged scammers turn to violence when their victims come looking for their money. The scams have circulated widely on Indonesian social media. Just two dozen Facebook posts advertising so-called shaman investment schemes were viewed more than 1.4 million times as of this week

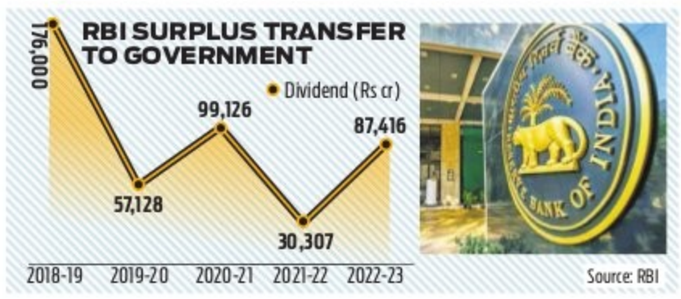
Govt to receive ₹87,416 cr dividend from RBI

Economist says dividend is in line with expectation; RBI paid ₹30,307 cr to government in the previous financial year

DIPAK MONDAL @New Delhi



IN a major boost to the central government finances, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has decided to pay ₹87,416 crore in dividend for the financial year 2022-23 to the government.

The amount to be transferred is almost three times of the ₹30,307 crore dividend it paid to the government in the previous financial year. A decision in this regard was taken in RBI's Board meeting held on Friday.

"The Board approved the transfer of ₹87,416 crore as surplus to the central government for the accounting year 2022-23, while deciding to keep the contingency risk buffer at 6%," the central bank said in a statement.

This year the government has budgeted for ₹48,000 crore as dividend from RBI, PSU banks and other government financial institutions. With the RBI now announcing ₹87,416 crore dividends, which will be accounted for in the current financial year, the government is looking at a much bigger receipt than it had budgeted for. This means even if the government misses its tax revenue estimates by a few thousand crores, its finances may still look sound. The government has budgeted for 5.9% of the GDP.

The RBI dividend was in line with our expectations, says Madhavi Arora, lead economist of Emkay Global Financial Services. She says the gains from record gross foreign exchange sales in fiscal year 2022-23 would be the major driver of bumper surplus, albeit with profits being partly offset by higher provisioning on mark-to-market (MTM) losses on foreign securities.

According to her, the dividend could bring in additional revenue of around 0.2% of GDP, which could partly offset possible losses amid lower tax revenues, divestment, etc.

The RBI has come to the government's rescue on several occasions in the past by announcing large payouts. It had announced ₹99,126 crore dividends for 2021-22, and ₹1.76 lakh crore for 2018-19.

The RBI earns its profits from a variety of sources including sale of bonds, interest from holding bonds, sale and purchase of foreign exchange as well as interest earned from short-term lending to banks.

The RBI Board meeting also reviewed the global and domestic economic situation and associated challenges including the impact of current global geopolitical developments. The Board also approved the annual report and accounts of the Reserve Bank for the accounting year 2022-2.3

ASIA

SHARES MOSTLY RISE ON US DEBT DEAL HOPE

Asian stock markets on Friday traded mostly higher on hopes that the US Congress will reach a deal to avoid defaulting on the nation's debt. President Joe Biden has said he's confident reaching a deal with Republicans to allow the US government to increase its credit limit and borrow more. According to reports, the US government will run out of cash to pay its bills as soon as June 1 unless a deal is made. Economists say a US federal default could have catastrophic consequences across financial markets and the economy. Japan's benchmark Nikkei 225 jumped 0.8% in early trade to 30,827.87, while Australia's S&P/ASX 200 rose 0.5% to 7,270.20. Hong Kong's Hang Seng slipped 1.4% to 19,449.72, while the Shanghai Composite lost 0.42% to 3,283.54. South Korea's Kospi added 0.89% to 2,537.79. Wall Street shares rose after more companies reported better-than-expected profits. The S&P 500 jumped 0.9%, adding to its rally from the day before, while the Dow Jones Industrial Average added 115 points, or 0.3% and the Nasdaq composite climbed 1.5%.

NEPAL

PVT SECTOR RECORDS 30-FOLD GROWTH IN 30 YEARS

Private sector sector's contribution to the GDP of Nepal has gone up significantly over the past three decades, with the service and agriculture sectors playing a dominant role, according to a recent report. The report by the Federation of Nepalese Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FNCCI) and the International Finance Corporation (IFC) said the number of private sector establishments has significantly increased over the last three decades, from 28,660 in 1983 to 923,356 in 2018. It is also the largest employer in Nepal, providing employment to 85.6% of the total labour force. The report is first such attempt to create a comprehensive baseline for the private sector in Nepal. According to the report, a substantial portion of the country's labour force is employed in agriculture, forestry, and fisheries (57%) and wholesale and retail trade, including vehicle repair (12.5%). Both industries are primarily driven by the private sector. In 2018, the private sector employed nearly 5.5 million people, while the public sector employed around 427,000 people.

CHINA

COUNTRY TO CURB LARGE FLUCTUATIONS IN EXCHANGE RATE, SAYS CENTRAL BANK

China's central bank on Friday said the country will curb large fluctuations in exchange rate and study the strengthening of self-regulation of dollar deposits. The comment comes from the Peoples' Bank of China after its domestic currency, yuan, dropped to multi-month lows and breached the 7-per-dollar level. The country's apex bank said it, along with the forex regulator, will jointly take measures to curb speculation. According to the statement, China will strengthen self-discipline management of US dollar deposit businesses, improve currency hedging services for firms and cut cost of hedging for small and medium-sized firms.

Byju's denies allegation of hiding $500 million through US subsidiary

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Bengaluru

EDTECH major Byju's on Friday refuted allegations of lenders that Alpha, its US-based subsidiary, has hidden $500 million. The company categorically denied allegations and said this is entirely incorrect.

Byju's in a statement said,"This is an interim order of a Delaware Court to maintain status quo in relation to Byju's Alpha, a non-operative US entity set up to receive the Term Loan B, with no employees. The litigants have made bewildering claims that Byju's 'moved' $500 million from Byju's Alpha, insinuating that these acts were somehow wrongful."

It said the transfers were in full compliance of and didn't contravene any terms of the parties' Credit Agreement and the agreed-upon rights and responsibilities.

According to reports, the lawsuit has been filed by Glas Trust Company against Byju's Alpha, its director Riju Ravindran and Tangible Play. Both companies are units of Think and Learn Private, founded by Byju Raveendran.

"In fact, even lenders have not alleged that the transfer was not permitted under parties' existing contractual arrangement.

As Byju's Alpha is a non-operative entity, the funds were transferred to other operative entities for growth and expansion in its global operations," Byju's said.

The company also said it entered into the Term Loan B agreement with the clear intention of utilising the raised funds to drive growth and expansion in its global operations and is free to transfer and use the funds as necessary. It also said the company has not missed a single payment and has no monetary defaults under the loan.

No TCS on overseas credit card spendings up to ₹7 lakh

MONIKA YADAV @New Delhi

AFTER coming under criticism for levying 20% tax on overseas credit card payments, the government on Friday announced that any payments by an individual using their international debit or credit cards up to ₹7 lakh per annum would be excluded from the liberalised remittance scheme or LRS limits and will not attract any tax collection at source (TCS).

"Concerns have been raised about the applicability of TCS to small transactions under LRS limits from July 1, 2023. To avoid any procedural ambiguity, it has been decided that any payments by an individual using their international debit or credit cards up to ₹7 lakh per financial year will be excluded from the LRS limits and hence, will not attract any TCS," Finance ministry said in a statement.

Existing beneficial TCS treatment for education and health payments will also continue, it reiterated. Recently, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) had introduced a new provision to bring overseas credit card spends under the LRS scheme as per which the individuals can do remittances of up to $2.5 lakh per annum.

Following this, the Ministry of Finance also issued a notification saying that such payments would attract 20% TCS which can be adjusted against advance tax payments or refunded at the time of return filing.

Tax experts had raised concerns about the above changes saying that would create complexities, especially for the middle class individuals. This would also freeze their cash for nearly a year.

In addition, tour operators also criticised the centre's move. Rajiv Mehra, Vice President of Indian Association of Tour Operators (IATO) had written to the Prime Minister that the increase in TCS from 5% to 20% from 01 July 2023, will cause loss to the outbound tour operators based in India. "The travellers would simply bypass the Indian operator and book outside. It would be a lose-lose situation for both the Government and the tour operators. This needs to be brought back to 5% as was before or even lower," Mehra said.

Under the LRS, there is a limit of $250,000 that one can take out of the country for expenses overseas.

The government also levies TCS at varying rates for different categories of expenditures under LRS. The rate varies from 0.5% to 20%.

NCLT RULING

Insolvency plea of IDBI against Zee Ent rejected

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @Mumbai

THE National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) on Friday dismissed IDBI Bank's insolvency plea against Zee Entertainment Enterprises (ZEEL), clearing decks for merger of Subhash Chandra-promoted company with Sony Entertainment.

IDBI moved to the bankruptcy court in December last year after ZEEL defaulted on a loan of ₹149 crore from the lender.

The Mumbai bench of NCLT, led by judicial member Kishore Vemulapalli and technical member Prabhat Kumar in its oral order dismissed an application filed by the IDBI Bank.

In December 2022, ZEEL had informed the bourses that IDBI Bank, claiming to be a financial creditor, filed the petition before the NCLT bench. IDBI claimed an amount of ₹149.60 crore, which has been disputed by ZEEL. IDBI, in its application, demanded initiation of Insolvency Resolution Process against ZEEL. The merger between Sony Pictures Networks India (SPNI) and ZEEL is expected to be completed by the first half of the current fiscal year, Sony Corp CEO Kenichiro Yoshida said on Thursday. Zee and Sony had signed definitive agreements in December 2021 to merge their businesses. The proposal has received approvals from the BSE, NSE and ZEEL shareholders. CCI has also approved the merger with modifications.

Under the terms of the proposed deal, Sony Pictures Entertainment will indirectly hold a majority of 50.86% in the combined company, while the founders of Zee will own 3.99 %, and 45.15% will be with the other shareholders of Zee. Sony will also pay a non-compete fee of ₹1,100 crore to Essel Group promoters.

Zomato net loss narrows 48% to ₹188 cr; says confident to turn profitable in 1 year

UMA KANNAN @Bengaluru

FOODTECH major Zomato is confident of achieving profitability for its entire business within the next four quarters.

In the fourth quarter, the company's consolidated net loss narrowed 48% to ₹188 crore compared with ₹360 crore in the same quarter last year. It reported a better-than-expected revenue from operations at ₹2,056 crore in Q4, a 70% jump, compared with ₹1,212 crore in the year-ago period.

Announcing March quarter earnings on Friday, CEO Deepinder Goyal while replying to how confident he was of achieving profitability for the entire business within the next four quarters, he said they are aiming to get there (profitability) by increasing profits in the food delivery business and reducing losses in the quick commerce Blinkit business.

Zomato is aiming to get to positive adjusted EBITDA on a consolidated basis including quick commerce within the next four quarters.

The quarterly growth in food delivery was low because of the demand slowdown it witnessed from late October last year till the end of January this year. Goyal said they have started seeing green shoots of recovery in the first week of February 2023. The CEO also said there were two other factors that impacted growth in the quarter including its exit from 225 cities in January 2023.

Also, the company witnessed decline in monthly transacting customers in the March quarter and the company attributed it to its strategic call of churning out the bottom few percentile of unprofitable customers from its business.

On ONDC (Open Network for Digital Commerce), which has been gaining attention, Goyal said at Zomato, they welcome all innovations that could help the restaurant industry in India grow. "We continue to watch the ONDC progress closely and learn from it," he said.

Goyal has left Urban Company board as Blinkit is now experimenting with similar service. The company also announced three top-level appointments. Rakesh Ranjan has been appointed as CEO-food ordering and delivery business; Rinshul Chandra as COO-Food ordering and delivery business; and Rishi Arora as CEO-Zomato Hyperpure.

PNB net profit rises over five-fold to ₹1,159 crore

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

PUNJAB NATIONAL BANK (PNB) on Friday reported over five-fold increase in its net profit to ₹1,159 crore for the fourth quarter ending March 2023 (Q4FY23), helped by lower bad loans and a rise in interest income.

The state-owned bank's standalone net profit was at₹202 crore in the year-ago period. Total income rose to ₹27,269 crore from ₹21,095 crore a year ago, PNB said in a regulatory filing. Interest income jumped to ₹23,849 crore in Q4FY23 as against ₹18,645 crore in the year-ago period. Net interest income rose 30.05% to ₹9,499 crore in Q4, the best-ever in the last five quarters, PNB managing director Atul Kumar Goel said. The bank has done a recovery of ₹29,000 crore in FY23 and aims for ₹22,000 crore in the current financial year as money is expected from the NCLT cases and other means.

The bank's board has recommended a dividend of ₹0.65 per share or 32.5% of ₹2 face value out of the net profits for the year ended March 31, 2023. The lender's gross non performing assets (NPAs) were cut to 8.74% of gross advances as of March 31, 2023, from 11.78% by the end of March 2022. Net NPAs came down to 2.72% of the advances from 4.8% at the end of 2022. Goel said gross NPA should moderate below 7%, while net NPAs to come down below 2% by the end of March 2024. The fall in the bad loans ratio helped reduce the provisions towards NPAs for Q4FY23 to ₹3,625 crore as against ₹4,564 crore a year ago.

He said said net interest margin (NIM) improved by 48 bps to 3.24% in Q4 FY23 from 2.76% in the same quarter a year ago.

Govt plans to blend 1% biofuel in ATF by 2025

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE government is planning to blend 1% sustainable Aviation Fuel (SAF) in jet fuel for domestic airlines by 2025 to reduce emissions in the aviation sector, said petroleum minister Hardeep Singh Puri on Friday.

The minister said SAF, a biofuel that powers aircraft and has similar properties of jet fuel with smaller carbon footprint, has the potential to cut greenhouse gas emissions by up to 80% as against conventional aviation fuel. "By 2025, if we target 1% SAF blending in jet fuel, India would require about 14 crore litre of SAF annually. If we target for 5% SAF blend, country requires nearly 70 crore litre of SAF per annum," said Puri. The first domestic commercial passenger flight with SAF blending up to 1% arrived in Delhi from Pune on Friday.

Tax dept relaxes angel tax norms for foreign investors

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE income tax department has proposed five more methods apart from existing two for valuation of shares for levying Angel Tax on gains made by Indian start-ups from issuing shares to foreign investors.

Currently, discounted cash flow (DCF) and net asset value (NAV) method is used for valuing shares issued to resident investors. The department has proposed five more methods for valuation of shares of entities issued to foreign investors.

I-T dept has proposed to provide a 'safe harbour' of 10% variation in value on account of forex fluctuations, bidding processes and variations in other economic indicators, etc. A safe harbour means the tax department will accept a variation of up to 10% in valuation. It has proposed to notify non-resident start-ups for angel tax immunity and broaden the list of excluded entity categories to cover non-resident entities with 75% government ownership, Sebi-registered FPIs and broad-based pooled investment vehicles. "Notification (by tax department) can be seen as an attempt to assuage frayed nerves of stakeholders by acknowledging the problem statement and seeking to bring respite," says Sandeep Jhunjhunwala, M&A tax Partner at Nangia Andersen LLP

Govt allows China-funded gaming firm to resume ops

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE Centre on Wednesday allowed to resume operations of Battlegrounds Mobile India (BGMI), the game suspended by the government from app stores in September 2020 citing security reasons, on a trial basis for three months.

The popular India-focused online multiplayer shooting game, banned following the Galwan clash as part of the cracked down heavily on Chinese apps, is expected to be available for download shortly.

The developer of the game, South Korean company Krafton Inc, is backed by China's Tencent. BGMI will be the first app to make a comeback among the 300-odd apps that were banned by the government in the past couple of years. Krafton Inc in a statement said it is highly grateful to the Indian authorities for allowing it to resume operations of BGMI.

"This is a three month trial approval of BGMI after it has complied with issues of server locations and data security etc. We will keep a close watch on other issues of user harm, addiction etc in the next three months before a final decision is taken,"said Rajeev Chandrasekhar, Minister of State for Electronics and Technology.

"We are excited to announce that BGMI will be available for download soon and we cannot wait to welcome you back to our platform. We believe in the power of gaming to bring people together and create unforgettable experiences. We are committed to delivering exceptional products and services to our users in India and beyond, and we look forward to continuing our journey with you,"said Sean Hyunil Sohn, CEO, Krafton Inc India.

According to BGMI, it surpassed 100 million cumulative users shortly after a year of its launch. Since its inception, BGMI has contributed significantly to building a robust Esports ecosystem in the country by providing India-centric events and content. BGMI said it made history by becoming the first Esports event to be broadcast on mainstream television.

BGMI may be available for download shortly

The popular India-focused online multiplayer shooting game, banned following the Galwan clash as part of the cracked down heavily on Chinese apps, is expected to be available for download shortly. The developer of the game, South Korean company Krafton Inc, is backed by China's Tencent.

Clinching EPL title like serving to win Wimbledon: Pep

Manchester City manager Pep Guardiola has compared the tension of trying to wrap up the Premier League title to a tennis player serving to win Wimbledon. City will be crowned champions if second-placed Arsenal lose on Saturday. "Now is coming the most difficult thing. Tennis players say to serve to win Wimbledon is the most difficult one," Guardiola said on Friday.

Asian Games long list, Chirag and the EFI selection mess

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

THE Supreme Court on Friday directed the Equestrian Federation of India (EFI) to include Chirag Khandal in the long list for the Asian Games that it submitted to the Indian Olympic Association (IOA). Chirag, who may still be one of the youngest riders at the Asian Games, was dropped though he had met the Minimum Eligibility Requirement (MER) last year. He had argued that since he had met the requirement last year, he should have been part of the team like last year. To complicate matters, they have argued that even the selection committee is defunct.

What seems more baffling is the non-inclusion of Fouaad Mirza, multiple silver medallist at the 2018 Asian Games apart from being India's lone participant in the sport at the Olympics in 2021. The tussle between the federation and Mirza over selection has been going on for more than a year now. While Mirza wanted to be selected on the basis of his performance in higher-rated competitions abroad, the EFI, for a long period of time, wanted him to come to India to give a selection trial in a 2-star or a 3-star meet.

Mirza, training in Germany, will not have any problem transporting his horse to China. His case is unique too. He has been competing in four star events abroad and had said during an earlier interaction with this newspaper that he should be judged based on these performances. He had been insisting that transporting horses is not easy and also if he gets his horses here there will be quarantine issues. In any case, China doesn't allow horses from India due to health regulations.

What is also puzzling is that the sports ministry and the Sports Authority of India (SAI) that runs Target Olympic Podium Scheme, who pull up federations for slightest violation of the national sports code and even suspend them, are somehow silent on EFI that is left without a quorum in the executive committee. There are only three members in the EC out of 12. The SAI had a meeting with country's best rider Mirza (only TOPS-funded rider), who during an interview with this daily said he was unhappy over his non-selection in the long list, Shashank Singh Kataria and Chirag on Friday to hear their side of the story and has directed the EFI to find a 'suitable decision'. According to a statement, SAI officials, including Shiv Sharma, Deputy Director General (DDG) on Friday interacted with Mirza, Khandal and Kataria virtually to understand their issues.

Chirag case

The EFI said that Chirag would not be considered for the Asian Games team based on last year's MERs. Interestingly, the Delhi High Court had come down heavily on EFI in March and asked them to include him in the team. The EFI reviewed the order and Chirag had to approach the Supreme Court.

During the hearing on Friday, the bench, comprising of Sanjiv Khanna and MM Sundresh, heard the petition and as an interim relief, has directed the EFI to include him in the team. "As an interim order and without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the respondents, we direct that respondent no.1 - EFI will include the name of the petitioner – Chirag Khandal in the provisional list which is to be issued/sent on or before 20.05.2023," said the order. The athletes and executive committee members had approached the IOA athletes commission and requested them to intervene as early as possible. The IOA athletes commission has considered the request and wrote to the IOA to form an ad hoc panel to run the federation. The EFI, which did not have an executive committee meeting for months, apparently has not got in touch with Chirag until evening.

The Delhi HC too was critical of the EFI's selection policy earlier. "After examining the conduct of the EFI throughout the present proceedings, this Court is of the prima facie opinion that EFI succeeded in their vicious approach to eliminate the best candidates by acting in a completely capricious and arbitrary manner while discharging its responsibilities," the court had said in March.

Big chance for CSK, LSG final challenge

Chennai Super Kings take on Delhi Capitals in the afternoon and Lucknow Super Giants face Kolkata Knight Riders in the evening. A win on Saturday would secure both CSK and LSG's play-off berths...

Eyes on Jadeja

133 runs in 12 games is not a good look for Ravindra Jadeja, but more than the runs, the fact that he has not been able to show intent and hit boundaries at will is a concern for CSK. His strike rate this season 127.88 is only marginally better than the last year's 118.37

Conway vs Nortje

Anrich Nortje has been breathing fire. He might not have run through attacks, but the South African is still a threat to CSK top-order. Devon Conway, along with Ruturaj Gaikwad, has been one of the proactive batters in the powerplay. How they negate the pacer will be key.

Varun's season to remember

Varun Chakravarthy has been the best bowler for KKR. He has bowled in all phases of the game and has delivered. Chakravarthy and KKR would want to come all guns blazing, spoiling the party for LSG.

RUN-FEST ON THE CARDS

Kolkata has been a batting-friendly surface for a while, the LSG top-order would love to bat on the pitch at Eden Gardens. Toss could be crucial with teams chasing having an advantage, but given the batting heavyweights LSG are they would probably prefer batting first, putting on a big score.

Rajasthan get Royal lifeline from Kings

Jaiswal & Padikkal hit fifties before Hetmyer's 26-ball 48, guiding the team home in the final over

GOMESH S @Chennai

IT was always going to be a contest of calculations. Both Punjab Kings and Rajasthan Royals are on 12 points and have to win by a massive margin to get past the other two teams — Mumbai Indians and Royal Challengers Bangalore — that are on 14 points. After which, they will have to pray to the heavens, hoping that both MI and RCB lose their respective final league games.

Having won the toss, RR opted to bowl first as they already have a better NRR and knowing what to chase in how many overs will aid them in preparing better. After all, they have the firepower in the top five to do so. On the other hand, Shikhar Dhawan seemed pragmatic saying that they just want to finish the season on a high. With both teams getting what they wanted at toss, it all boiled down to who set the tone first. And Trent Boult did exactly that taking a diving catch on his follow-through to dismiss Prabhsimran Singh in the very first over. He almost took another in the same over to get rid of Atharva Taide, but the right-hander, with Shikhar Dhawan, took the attack to Sandeep Sharma, who did not help the case with a no ball off his very first delivery.

They raced to 38/1 in 3.3 overs, but Navdeep Saini who came in as a change up for Sandeep dismissed Taide with a short of length delivery. With Adam Zampa trapping Dhawan and Saini cleaning up the dangerous Liam Livingstone, RR was back on top. PBKS were down to 53/4 after seven overs. Even as Zampa and Yuzvendra Chahal tried to keep things tight, Sanju Samson went back to Sandeep who was hit for a couple of sixes by Jitesh Sharma. That shifted the momentum towards PBKS as Sam Curran hit boundaries of Chahal at the other end.

RR was letting go of the control they had with the ball as Jitesh hit Saini for a four, six and another four off consecutive deliveries in the fourteenth over before getting out on the fifth delivery. Out of nowhere, Punjab had managed to get to 115/5 after 14 overs. In came M Shahrukh Khan, whom the Punjab team management have been batting at No. 7 or lower through the season. Along with Curran, he took the game deep. The duo added only 26 runs between overs 14-18, setting themselves up for a counterattack. With no R Ashwin, who was out with back spasm, and Sandeeep Sharma bowled out, Samson went back to Chahal for the penultimate over of the innings. The TN batter was ready. He sent the leg-spinner to the mid-wicket boundary and went one better on the second delivery, hitting Chahal over the ropes. Curran went berserk, too, smashing two sixes and a four off the last three deliveries. When Boult came on, the momentum was with Punjab as the duo hit 22 runs in the final over, taking PBKS to 187/5.

In reply, RR chased it down in 19.4 overs, moving to fifth place in the points table. Now, they will have to be wait and see if things go their way as several teams have to lose for RR to get into the play-offs.

Impact player Dhruv Jurel hit 10 runs in four balls to help RR win on Friday | SPORTZPICS

BRIEF SCORES

PBKS 187/5 in 20 ovs (Curran 49 n.o, Shahrukh 42 n.o; Saini 3/40) lost to RR 189/6 in 19.4 ovs (Jaiswal 50, Padikkal 51).

Ratifying PoSH policy among agenda for SGM

GOMESH S @Chennai

WITH more emphasis being given to women's cricket and wrestlers' protest at Jantar Mantar over sexual harassment allegations against sidelined Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) chief, The Indian cricket board has listed ratification of new prevention of sexual harassment policy during its special general body meeting in Ahmedabad on May 27. The richest sports body in the country did not have adequate PoSH policy and even the National Human Rights Commission sent a notice.

In a notice that was circulated by the BCCI secretary's office to the affiliates, the BCCI has laid out the five-point agenda for the SGM scheduled for May 27. Formation of Infrastructure Development & Subsidy Committee, guidelines for appointments of Physiotherapists and Trainers in state teams, Formation of Working Group for ICC World Cup 2023, Formation of committee of Women's Premier League and Ratification of Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy are in the agenda for the meeting as per the notice accessed by this daily.

After the sexual harassment allegations against former BCCI CEO Rahul Johri, the absence of a sexual harassment policy was highlighted and a four-member committee was formed. However, there has not been any update since the new office bearers took charge in November last year. Earlier this month, the NHRC had issued notices to the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Sports Authority of India, the BCCI, Wrestling Federation of India, and 15 other National Sports Federations to submit detailed reports within four weeks including the present status of the ICC in their organization as well as the steps taken or proposed to be taken to address the issue.

With the ODI World Cup set to be played in October, the BCCI are planning to form the Working Group for the tournament. While the funds already allocated for the upgradation of the venues zeroed in for the World Cup, with just four months to go for the global tournament, the working group will have to finalise the venues and complete the revamp on priority basis.

While the inaugural season of the WPL happened in March last year, there was not a separate governing committee for the tournament. The committee that is set to be formed will have to finalise a permanent window for the tournament in the cricket calendar. The BCCI will also be looking into forming the guidelines for appointments of physiotherapists and trainers for the state teams which might include a minimum certification or experience as a qualification criteria.

ITALIAN OPEN

Medvedev & Tsitsipas ease into semfinals

AFP @Rome

Third seed Daniil Medvedev and 2022 finalist Stefanos Tsitsipas powered into the Italian Open semifinals on Thursday with comfortable straight-set wins.

Medvedev continued his clay breakthrough as he reached the final four 6-2, 6-2 over Yannick Hanfmann.

Greek Tsitsipas, the 2022 finalist, subdued Croat Borna Coric 6-3, 6-4 on a day when the French Open field was blown wide open by the withdrawal of Rafael Nadal.

The iconic 14-time champion, 36, cast a huge shadow over his future in the game, confessing that he did not know when he would be fit from a hip injury which has kept him off court since January.

Medvedev, the 2021 US Open champion, has made big improvements in his clay game here after freely admitting he's never been comfortable on the dirt.

He has shattered that stereotype with his steady progress at the Foro Italico, reaching his seventh semifinal of the season. Medvedev dominated number 101 German qualifier Hanfmann after settling in following breaks of serve in the opening three games in their quarterfinal.

Howe ready for Euro test as Newcastle eye Champions League

AFP @London

EDDIE Howe says Newcastle will need more quality and depth in their squad next season if they are to cope with the demands of a potential Champions League campaign.

Howe's side are guaranteed to at least reach the Europa League after thrashing Brighton 4-1 on Thursday.

But the third placed Magpies have a lucrative Champions League berth within their grasp. They will be certain of qualifying if they win one of their last two games against Leicester on Monday or Chelsea on May 28. Newcastle boss Howe has spent over £250 million ($310 million) to revitalise his squad since taking charge in 2021 and he knows further investment in new signings will be required to compete in the Premier League and Europe next term.

"We need to figure that out. If you have a strong squad, rotation will be important. Rotation is going to be important, utilising the whole squad is going to be important," he told reporters on Friday. "We haven't felt the necessity to necessarily do that on a consistent basis because we've been in one competition - of course, we had the League Cup run. We have rotated to a degree, but maybe not in the numbers that we might need to next year.

"If you're going to do that, then the squad needs to be strong enough, so if you put out two XIs, they're of equal strength." The strength of Howe's current squad could be put to the test on Monday evening with his midfield resources stretched severely in the aftermath of an energy-sapping clash with the Seagulls. Joe Willock was helped from the pitch in some discomfort with a hamstring injury which the Magpies fear will end his season with two games to go, while Bruno Guimaraes has been nursing a persistent ankle problem in recent months.

DAY'S DIARY

An illustrious record

On May 20, 1932, aviator Amelia Earhart flew from Canada and landed 15 hours later near Northern Ireland, becoming the first woman to fly across the Atlantic Ocean

WORLDWIDE FAME

The feat made Earhart a worldwide sensation and proved she was a courageous and able pilot. For this achievement, the city of Philadelphia presented her with a medal

QUEEN OF THE AIR

In 1928, she became the first woman to fly alone across North America and back. In 1931, she set a world altitude record of 18,415 feet. The press started calling her the 'Queen of the Air'

SUDDEN DISAPPEARANCE

Whilst attempting to fly around the world alongside co-pilot on July 2, 1937, Earhart disappeared when the plane's radio signal cut out in the South Pacific. She was pronounced legally dead in 1939

Former Olympic track and field athlete Sanya Richards-Ross, currently in Bengaluru, chats with CE about her running days and what she is standing for now

KEEPING UP THE PACE

PIC: VINOD KUMAR T

DESE GOWDA

SANYA Richards-Ross, the celebrated Jamaican-American track and field athlete, is in Bengaluru this weekend. Her second time in India, Richards-Ross feels there has been remarkable growth in the running culture in the country since her last visit. On Sunday, Richards-Ross will cheer tens of thousands who will participate in the TCS World 10K Bengaluru run.

Often considered the greatest female 400-metre runner of all time, Richards-Ross (38) retired in 2016 following an injury. Since then, she has pivoted to a career as a sports broadcast and entrepreneur, while also being immersed in motherhood. "It's been a joy for me to transition from track and field to all the other things. I feel like I've learned so much from sports that has helped me be an entrepreneur and helped me as a mother, which has been one of the most rewarding things. I love being a commentator, getting to give back to my sport, being the voice of athletes and helping to continue to spread that enthusiasm around the sport. I love all the things that I get to do now," she shares, adding that her favourite moment of her long and illustrious career was when she won an individual gold medal in 400m at the 2012 Olympics.

Much has changed since the run that started back in 2008 and Richards-Ross has witnessed it closely. "India now has representation at the World Championships, and athletes are getting better and stronger. This is the start of something great. It's a thrill for me to be a part of that. I hope more people will fall in love with running," she adds.

But the most she misses from her days as an athlete is the camaraderie she shared with her friends and family. "Being on the team and travelling all over the world...my mom and dad, they were all part of the journey with me," she adds.

Meanwhile, in recent years, Richards-Ross' focus has been beyond athletics, primarily advocating healthcare and welfare of mothers, particularly those facing hardships through her foundation.

"I tried to lend my voice to the things that I have experience with. And so right now, I'm focussed on trying to find ways to support moms. It's funny because I always wanted to be a mom. When I became one in 2017, I realised it is one of the hardest jobs you can ever have," she says.

One woman, many emotions...that is what you will get to witness in this dance production

Lady in love

EXPRESS FEATURES

VARIOUS moods of a woman have been muse for many artistes while creating their masterpieces. In dance, these moods are expressed through Ashtanayikas. Taking inspiration, Bharatanatyam dancer Kiran Subramanyam's dance production Maanini depicts the various emotions of a woman who is in love. This show is taking place on May 27 at ADA Rangamandira, JC Road.

Subramanyam, who choreographed the piece, has one woman playing the role of eight dancers. "I have tried to show eight moods of one lady who has fallen in love. Through her dance, a Nayika expresses coyness, joy, despair, anger, pride or jealousy, creating a collage of emotions, essential for dance," explains Subramanyam.

Further explaining the concept, she says the sakhi is one of the biggest catalysts in this story. "Sakhi is a friend helping the main protagonist to reach her love – that is the Almighty. A sakhi is like the bridge between the two," he adds.

The production is an attempt at breaking away from conventional methods of viewing Bharatanatyam. Being a crowd-funded event, the dance musical has been planned as a big production. "We have around 80 dancers participating, out of which many are from five different schools. We have taken care of the different theatrical props which makes the show into a larger magnitude. We have used different styles of Carnatic music," he adds.

The team had started the preparation of the show five months ago. Maanini is a collaborative project and has been presented on many platforms – Suvritti Festival, Kalakshetra Foundation, Chennai and Serendipity Festival, Goa, to name a few.

IF YOU'RE GOING THROUGH HELL, KEEP GOING

WINSTON CHURCHILL

TRUE BLUE OR MULTI-HUED?

RUBINATIONS
Rubi Chakravarti

Writer, actor and funny girl

WE have to make 'Buzzing-Bangalore' a nomenclature for 'nammaooru'! Everybody and their grandfather are descending on our city opening bars/restaurants, hotels, business ventures and new real-estate projects. Whew! Soon our skyline is going to take on a different texture and hue. There is a permanent cloud of dust hovering menacingly overhead while flashy resorts still try to sell you a glimpse of Nandi Hills shrouded in a dust storm! Leaving the city for a short sojourn to Kodagu or the Chikkamagaluru hills is a chore with snarling traffic jams and cars packed with people with the same idea as you.

With the new government getting sworn in, people are hopeful that since Karnataka has been called a 'cash-cow' (in the words of the politicians' not mine), we may become a model state with roads, infrastructure, business et al, to be an example to what a fresh start looks like! None of us is protesting. We all say upwards and onwards! While I was in Mumbai, I was often asked about Bengaluru. I started to get stumped for answers after I was quizzed a couple of times. "'How do you like living there,'' to "I heard it's a rocking place with a great nightlife and better weather"!

To me, Bengaluru is much more. I find myself using the word 'quintessentially-Bangalore' more and more. We have filled our cities with glittering malls, pubs and hotels, blocks of flats that are eye-sores and infrastructure that is non-existent. We are systematically chopping off our green cover, razing heritage buildings and are destroying our beautiful climate. We have a thriving tech-industry and large R&D Establishment (set up by my father). Yet we are still referred to as 'pub-city'. We are much more than that!

That being said; I was eagerly waiting for a young a Sri-Lankan chef, Minoli De Silva, to showcase her cooking skills at a pop-up at JW Marriott. The newly-revamped restaurant Alba was teeming with her admirers. I was amazed to see a fusion of guests ranging from young families with children and the older discerning diners. What was amazing was the eager young adolescent fans of MasterChef Australia who crowded around her work station taking pictures and asking questions. Becoming a chef is a top-rated professional goal nowadays. Needless to say, her take on contemporary Sri-Lankan fare was a delight. She mixed, altered and matched traditional ingredients to make it modern and innovative without losing the punch of those quintessential herbs that titillate ones taste-buds. Her 'Curry-leaf cured Snapper' swimming in a sauce of light coconut sauce was a testament to her genius.

I was invited to the Bangalore International Centre by the Australian Consul for South India, the soft-spoken Sarah Kirlew to view the Australian indigenous textile art exhibition. Aptly called Jarracharra (dry season wind of northern Australia), they partnered with our local Indian artisans to keep the indigenous-art spirit (some of them even religious symbols) alive and yet belonging to the original artisans.

It was a great initiative and as Sarah said, "It's become increasingly important to proactively tell our First Nation stories." It's a heartening step towards nations that have been conquers to acknowledge the original inhabitants art and culture.

We need more events, performing venues, cultural centres and places like the Museum of Art and Photography that epitomises the true-blue Bangalore.

MIXOLOGY
Robinson Lazar

The writer is GM and head mixologist

MIXOLOGY influences the way people drink in bars, it creates a new standard that hasn't existed before. Mixology bars don't necessarily serve you the most fancy and complex drinks, it can be regular whiskey and cola, only served with better-quality whiskey.

The ingredients of a cocktail are like components of an engine: Each part has a part to play, so if one ingredient is out of proportion, the whole drink falls apart. As a mixologist — the drink's mechanic — it's your job to help those ingredients work together, to keep the engine humming.

Tinkering with classic cocktails takes practice and precision, but advancing your home-bar repertoire can be rewarding and delicious. Engineering inventive drinks doesn't demand intricate processes or hard-to-find ingredients, just a little science and willingness to experiment.

A good cocktail balances its base spirit with high-concentrated ingredients like sugar syrups, bitters or citrus juices. In the right amounts, sugar and acid will taper the intensity of the base spirit and heighten its flavour while not dominating the drink.

Modifiers don't always affect a cocktail's balance, but they do contribute a wider array of tastes and flavours. They can introduce floral, herbaceous, and umami notes. Worcestershire, for example, gives a Bloody Mary its savoury kick, while cranberry juice adds a bitter, fruity hint to a cosmopolitan. Liqueurs are common modifiers, as are citrus juices, fortified wines (like vermouth), and bitters.

Usage of good quality water also plays a key role, as the taste of water can change the taste of a drink drastically. Water does the opposite of modifiers — it dilutes flavours and takes the edge off high-proof alcohol. Most likely, water is introduced to drinks through shaking or stirring with ice.

ROAN
PIGEON WINGS

BRIDGING RELIGIOUS DIVIDES THROUGH A COMMON GAME

A SHARADHAA

DAREDEVIL MUSTHAFA
Director: Shashank Sohgal
Cast: Shishir Baikady, Aditya Ashree, Prerana Gowda, Mandya Ramesh, Harini, Nagabhushana, and Poornachandra Mysore

DEBUTANT Shashank Soghal's Daredevil Musthafa is a remarkable achievement in Kannada cinema, considering the scarcity of book-to-screen adaptations in recent years. It is an impressive execution of Poornachandra Tejaswi's timeless short story of the same name, written in the 1970s, what motivates Shashank to take on an unconventional path. He has tried to bring to life one of the beloved tales that is close to the picturesque writing of Tejaswi. He takes us back to college life, introduces a game, and underlines themes of communal harmony. The film begins with an intriguing excerpt from one of Poornachandra Tejaswi's thought-provoking interviews, where he passionately expresses his disapproval of young individuals involved in communal violence.

The film is set in the fictional town of Abachuru, a quaint town that serves as the backdrop of the tale. A place, with a peculiar history of its own delves into the deep-rooted perceptions surrounding Muslims. Despite its pleasant appearance, the town wrestles with communal animosity between Hindus and other religions. The tension reaches its peak during the yearly Ganapati festival, particularly when the procession passes by the Muslim dargah. The situation has further deteriorated following the eloping of a Hindu girl with a Muslim boy. Against this backdrop, the story unfolds, around the Abachurina Government Pre-University college.

Ramanuja Iyengari (Aditya Ashree) is happy to be joining his friends in the same college, and his face brightens up to know that Ramamani (Prerna Gowda) has also joined the same batch. Everything seems fine and rosy until the entry of Jamal Abdul Musthafa Hussain (Shishir Baikady), 20 days after the college reopening, and he happens to be the sole Muslim student in the entire college. The limited knowledge among the students fosters stereotypical notions about Muslims, and Musthafa becomes the focal point for gossip. They ponder whether he hails from the esteemed Tipu Sultan family, whether he possesses the extraordinary ability to fix punctures without water or whether he immerses himself in fragrant perfumes.

As the story unfolds, Ramanuja Iyengari and his boys progressively see the their anger. Moreover, Musthafa, resenting his captivating allure over both girls and teachers further adds fuel to the fire. These differences among students quickly lead to conflicts, prompting Ramanuja Iyengari and his gang to devise schemes aimed at getting Musthafa expelled from college. Will their triumph in their endeavours, or is there more to this rivalry than what meets the eye?

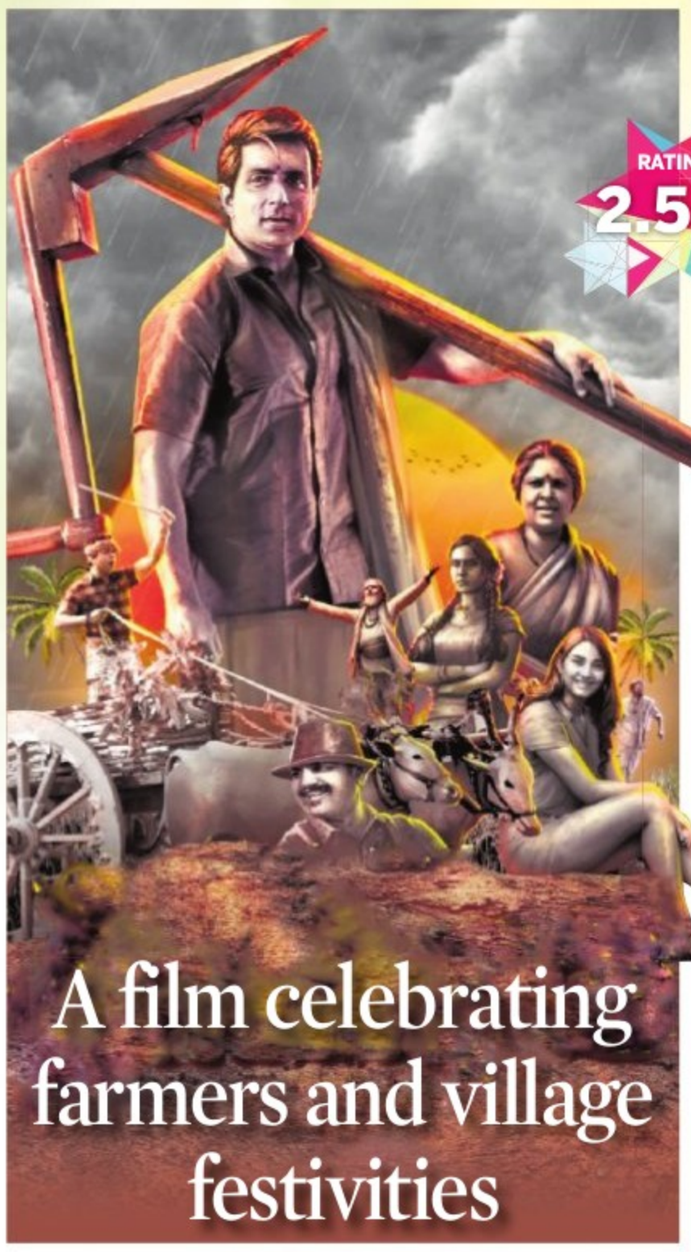
Shashank Sohgal is from the theatre, and so is his cast, even though it is their first silver-screen outing the director and the gang shine. The director recreates the timeless vintage era, and takes creative liberty incorporating hilarious wordplay that grows even more amusing throughout the narrative.

In an attempt to cater to mainstream cinema, there are a couple of songs amidst a fight sequence and advocating harmony leaves an impact. Shashank skillfully handles the teenage actors, avoiding exaggerated innocence or overly dramatic emotions for more authentic portrayals, and their theatre background has come in handy. The lead actors, including Shishir Baikady as Musthafa, Aditya Ashree as Ramanuja, Prerana Gowda as Ramamani, Abhay, Supreeth Bharadwaj, Aashith, Srivatsa, Shobharaj Pavoor, and many others, contribute to making this film truly memorable, and the former two characters truly stand out. Among the many students, meticulous character development is evident, such as Musthafa's repeated assertion of being a 'Daredevil', which effectively portrays his confidence and fearlessness. The film also showcases reliable performances from senior actors like Mandya Ramesh, and Nagabhushana, who makes sure the humour remains intact and supporting actors MS Umesh, and Poornachandra Mysore leave a mark. Daredevil Musthafa, which pays a commendable tribute to Dr Rajkumar, with the animated song seamlessly integrated without disrupting the film's flow, but the best part of the film, is the cricket match. Divided by religion they are united by cricket. The game that can change at any moment helps them surpass their religious barriers. Tejaswi had constructed this part well in his imaginative world and it is brought to life beautifully by the director.

However, Tejaswi, who had highlighted the religious differences in society, had given an open end to his story, and that's where the film director diverges from the original story in the final act, which is extended and delayed. Though the director gets carried away with the film's duration he ends it with a heart-warming message.

Unlike most films, which show a particular religion on the wrong side, it is refreshing to witness both Hindu and Muslim boys as heroes on screens. The film's relevant message resonates with contemporary times, and fortunately, it comes packaged with entertainment.

Daredevil Musthafa promotes communal harmony is a treat to watch, and it is filled with the fun atmosphere of college life, friendship and love, which are above our differences, and it is a great take away even now.



A film celebrating farmers and village festivities

A SHARADHAA

SREEMANTA
Director: Hassan Ramesh
Cast: Sonu Sood, Kranti Revana Siddappa, Vaishnavi Menon, Vaishnavai Patwardhan, Ravishankar Gowda, Ramesh Bhat, and Raju Talikote

INDIA has always been an agrarian country, and there is no doubt that farmers are an integral part of our nation's economy. However, despite the crucial nature of their job, the farming industry faces severe challenges. In our pursuit of technological advancement, many of us have overlooked them and no longer empathise with the difficulties and sacrifices of farming families. Farmer suicides are increasing due to the undermining of their rights. Most youngsters migrate to cosmopolitan cities to make a different living. The question remains: will they survive or return to their roots? Filmmaker Hassan Ramesh's debut film, Sreemanta, revolves around one such pertinent question.

The movie begins with Sudeep's voice-over explaining the importance of farmers and their lifestyle in rural areas. Set in and around Kopla, Sreemanta follows the life of Krishna (Kranti Revana Siddappa), son of Shanthamma (Kalyani), who depends on his farmland. However, influenced by some circumstances and his friends, Krishna contemplates travelling to Bengaluru city to seek a better life as a seven-year drought has affected them. His mother strongly opposes his decision, and Krishna, respecting her wishes, navigates his life based on traditional ideals. What happens next forms the rest of the story.

Meanwhile, the film explores a love story with Krishna falling in love with Padma (Vaishnavi Menon), the daughter of the village chief (Charan Raj). Later the villagers decide to celebrate a festival to thank the village deity, providing a vibrant glimpse of a village festival filled with dance, songs and drama, unlike anything seen before. They even engage a drama director and assistant (Ramesh Bhat and Tabla Nani) to teach the villagers the nuances of acting. At this juncture, a priest tells Padma that she has to struggle a lot to join hands with her lover, and instructs her to perform a special pooja at another village. At this juncture, Ruchi (Vaishnavi Patwardhan) arrives at the village to act in the drama. She becomes closer to Krishna, and their journey forms one part of the Sreemanta storyline. The festive occasion becomes the reason behind the actor Sonu Sood's arrival in this village. In an extended speech during the last half-hour, he explains the importance of agriculture and farmers.

Director Hassan Ramesh deserves appreciation for creating a captivating atmosphere and incorporating thought-provoking lines about agriculture. Hamsalekha's music enhances the village-based subject and the songs are melodious. The problem with this movie is its duration of almost 180 minutes, which doesn't work in favour of the film.

As far as the performance of the artists is concerned, both the heroines look beautiful and played their part well. Kranti Revana Siddappa looks stoic in most of the scenes. He has to go a long way in case he wants to establish himself as an actor. Sadhu Kokila's performance serves no purpose given the already crowded cast. Raju Talikota, who played a harmonium player, has nothing to do except complain about others. Ramesh Bhat, Charan Raj, and Ravi Shankar Gowda provide good support. Kalyani has done an good job with her performance and dialogue delivery.

If you appreciate Hamsalekha's music or want to explore the lifestyle of farmers in rural areas and experience village festivities, Sreemanta is worth watching.

PRASHANTH VALLAVAN

Director: Louis Leterrier
Cast: Vin Diesel, Jason Momoa, Michelle Rodriguez, John Cena, Alan Ritchson

IN 2021, watching the scene in Fast 9 where Dom's crew straps a rocket to a car and flies off to the International Space Station, everyone struggled to imagine where the franchise would go from there. How could they stretch the limits of the franchise beyond this? What is beyond space? Apparently, the answer is Jason Momoa. Introduced in Fast X as the new big bad, Momoa's Dante Reyes is pulled from the peripheral shadows of Fast Five. He is the son of Hernan Reyes, the drug lord from whom Dom and his crew steal a vault full of money in the fifth film. It was a total surprise when the biggest positive of Fast X happened to be the extravagantly unhinged Jason Momoa. Momoa's flamboyant, over-the-top Dante—who is reminiscent of the Joker from The Dark Knight at places—could have very easily fallen flat and become annoying and it nearly does at places. However, it is Momoa's earnestness to go all in with his performance that ultimately saves the day and renders some entertainment out of a rather flippantly written screenplay.

Fast X spends the major chunk of its beginning setting up the future of the franchise. The scenes spent with Dom's son feel like they're made to feed montages in future instalments. Vin Diesel's emotional range in the film struggles to push past variations of mopey and dour. John Cena provides moments of respite with his energetic presence but the story trades his screen time for an—albeit overused—impactful character moment. The supporting ensemble that includes Ludacris, Nathalie Emmanuel, and Tyrese Gibson, who provided levity and humour to the earlier instalments find themselves severely lacking in Fast X. While the action feels like an echo of things we have seen earlier, the hand-to-hand combats manage to impress despite this shortcoming. The Fast and Furious franchise belongs to a class of blockbuster cinema, which engineers its action set pieces and then weaves a semblance of story around them. While the scope and the scale of action scenes in Fast X live up to the standards of your typical global blockbuster, they lack the inventive spirit of "Children playing with life-sized toys" that the previous films had.

Does this mean Fast X is a bad film? Not by any stretch of a typical Fast and Furious Runway. Hardly the worst offering of the franchise, Fast X still manages to entertain us despite its brash cinematic language, loud visuals, and glaring sound design. We tolerate its shortcomings and still look forward to revisiting Dom and crew once in a while like we would a family member. I guess Dominic Toretto had a point when he brings up his "familia" in almost every one of these films. It is all about tolerating someone and caring about them despite their shortcomings all because they have been a part of your life for so long. The same goes for the Fast and Furious franchise.
